WAKEFIELD HIGH SCHOOL
Wakefield, Massachusetts

Foreword

Well, Partners, our journey's end approaches. We have staked our claim, and now we shall put our hard-earned bonanza to work for us. It was a long journey, one that taught us much, and one that held many intervals of pleasure for us. In order that you may remember your prospecting days in future years, we present to you a chronicle of our adventures together as the Forty-Niners.

We Hit the Trail

SEPTEMBER 8, 1945

Gold! Gold! Gold! The sun was shining brightly as we hit the trail. Many tenderfeet who were unaccustomed to our vehicles searched intently for a ladder. Wagon Master Kinder interviewed many green prospectors who fell out of line, and he briefed them on the purpose of our trip. The day became cloudy toward noon for some bewildered travellers who were tempted to encamp until they found their bearings.

SEPTEMBER 30, 1945

Everyone is now accustomed to our covered wagons, although Trapper Kenney has discovered some adventure-seekers slipping behind the train and trying some new trails.

OCTOBER 20, 1945

There had been no accidents until today when Phyl D'Entremont's wagon wheel fell off, and Nurse English had to repair the damage.

NOVEMBER 12, 1945

Our first snowfall detained us for one day. When the sun appeared the next morning, everyone wanted to experiment with snowballs, but Wagon Master Kinder issued a proclamation that no further time could be wasted, for we must continue on our journey to stake our claims.

DECEMBER 5, 1945

We have made very good time since we have had very little trouble with the Indians. Sharpshooter Fisher has been successful in protecting the train from attacks.

DECEMBER 23, 1945

Everyone is making plans for Christmas, and carols are floating throughout the wagon train. Chief Prospector Bair is planning to have a party on Christmas Eve while we are encamped. Gold Surveyor Fulton will have charge of the music and song feats.

JANUARY 4, 1946

We have covered 1,945 miles up to date. The Vigilantes, Kupiec and Ball, have kept track of the number of hours we have been delayed during these months. We have added some new members to our trek since we started, and they have been amazed at the spirit which always prevails.

First Prospector, JEAN CONNOLLY

MR. CARL M. BAIR, JR.

In Appreciation

We, the Class of Nineteen Forty-Nine, respectfully dedicate our Classbook to our friendly Superintendent, Carl M. Bair, Jr., who, in a short time, has gained the admiration of the entire student body for his efforts in our behalf.

Rolling Along

MONDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1946

This morning the weather was fine and pleasant, and we traveled ten miles over a rolling prairie country. During one of the stops, David Gibbons skipped history class and went buffalo hunting with Sharpshooter Cassano. Gibbons ended his day with writer's cramp after copying the Constitution of the United States.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1946

Early today as we were following the dusty trail, a displeasing scent arose from one of the wagons. After realizing the cause, Fire Chief Gallop and assistant Roy Serrentino fumigated the wagon. As one might expect, Fred Sias was experimenting in the chemical laboratory.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1946

The weather was torrid and dry. As our caravan stretched out across the dusty Moulton Desert, a band of Quannapowitt Indians attacked us. Our Barbara Walsh quickly drove them away. Her tactics for fighting were similar to those used in dashing to and from her gym classes.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1946

Getting a good start, we traveled thirteen miles over a sandy, barren country. This afternoon a herd of freshmen buffalo galloped by. Wagonhound Roberts shot two stragglers with his spitballs. Since the animals were too young and tender, their hides didn't make very good leather.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1946

We lost eight miles today. Head Coachman, John Herlihy, got so busy with his rhetorical that he missed a landmark; consequently we found ourselves mired in a muddy river bank. Although the underclassmen got in our way, we managed to dig our caravan out of the mud. After we had found our trail again, we rolled along smoothly.

Encampment

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1946

We pitched camp for a long stopover a few days ago. Although there are many tasks ahead, the boys and girls in our wagon train manage to find some time for fun. The first day we camped, Lefavour and Roberto went from wagon to wagon looking for football material, and Miss Nichols soon had a group of girls practicing field hockey in a nearby meadow.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1946

We started on the trail again today. Although most of us were sorry to leave the old water hole, Whiting and Hicks were overjoyed. As soon as we hit cold weather, both of them will be enlisting boys for a hockey team. Glynn, too, seems to have a gleam in his eye that doesn't come from thoughts of gold, and I suspect that we shall soon have a basketball team, coached by our most experienced mule driver, Lou Colucci.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1946

Most of the girls have gotten over their homesickness for the old water hole, and are urging Miss Nichols to help them form a basketball team. Peggy Sias and Claire Griffin especially are sharpening their shooting eyes. Our next stop will not lack excitement despite cold weather and hard work.

TUESDAY, MARCH 10, 1947

We have survived the winter months! The sun is pleasantly warm, and we are well on our way over the last obstacles in our path. Some of the fellows are having a last fling at sports by playing baseball at every opportunity. Dave Hal-lahan, Bill Miller, and Bob Baker held up our start from one encampment when they refused to leave an exciting game. The girls, too, have sport fever and are breaking out in a rash of activities. I suspect that softball, badminton, and tennis games are responsible for the late grub we've been having the last few days.

SATURDAY, APRIL 9, 1947

We're really on our way now! No more stopovers for many a dusty mile. Throughout our long and tedious trek towards pay dirt, the athletic teams of the caravan have given us thrills and entertainment, and have increased our zeal and spirit for the Crystal Lake Trail which lies ahead.

Back Row, Left to Right: Barry Irish, Malcolm Dunbar, Alan Rich, John Morley, Richard Taylor, Lawrence Dower, Douglas Schumann, Roger Williams.

Second Row, Left to Right: Mr. Fanck, Director; Mr. Hennessey, Marilyn Moss, Marion Pohl, Mary Milotte, Esther Ham, Harland Glover, Charles Griffen, Arnold Levine, Dexter Taylor, Bruce Nahigyan, Alan Truesdale, Dorothy Nutile.

The Gold Dusters

Throughout our caravan journey, the stirring music of the band has kept our spirits high and our minds intent on the goals ahead. At all the football games their marvelous demonstrations of marching, formations, and musical ability have thrilled and entertained us. Under the skillful leadership of Mr. Fanck, the band puts on a concert every year, and this annual event is eagerly anticipated and warmly received. Without the band and its music, our journey would have been rough and tedious indeed.

Orchestra

The orchestra has completed another enjoyable season. These musicians appeared at the Senior Play, at the Annual Concert in the spring, and ended the year by playing the graduation music at the commencement exercises in June. Mr. Fanck's sympathetic and capable guidance has made the orchestra a worthwhile and an enjoyable school activity.

The Warriors' Trail

Well, Forty-Niners, our pride in the Wakefield High School football squad has been justified. They surely didn't need a team of oxen to pull them through this season. Our first win over Danvers, 38 to 0, really started the wagon rolling. Then the Woburn palefaces caved in under our Warriors, 13 to 0, who were on the warpath. Suddenly came the upset of the season when Watertown was ambushed, but not scalped, 12 to 6. The 7-6 decision of the Melrose game, in Melrose's favor, was somewhat discouraging as we knew how hard the Warriors played. Reading almost weakened, but tied, upon meeting up with our red hot squad. But the surprising game, which ended the season, was tied when the "Gloucester Fishermen" met up with W. H. S. A word of praise goes to Mike Roberto and Roy Lefavour, our co-captains, and also Coach "Hacker" Walsh, Coach Ceddia, Coach Colucci, and Coach Crompton, who invariably made our "49" squad one to remember.

Our Hot Hoopsters

The basketball team this year was sparked by several veterans. Led by our Co-captains, Roy Lefavour and Gerry Glynn, the Wakefield Warriors proved to be one of the strongest contenders in the Middlesex League.

Starting out with victories over Danvers, Methuen, and Stoneham, the Wakefield Five, under Coach Colucci, pushed after the leading teams. Kirk Moran and Louis Sardella could always be depended upon to put the ball into the basket, while our scrappy guards, Doug Schumann and Red Porter, made a fine showing by keeping the opponents out of our territory. Phil Perrone and Dick Shea kept the team "on the ball" by their accurate passing.

Although the inexperienced second team lost several games, it performed admirably. With more games under their belts these players will be in fine trim for victory next year.

BASKETBALL TEAM

Second Row, Left to Right: Joseph Meuse and Waldemar Horak, Assistant Managers; Harold Weeks, Charles Higgins, Robert Surrette, John Callan, Douglas Cowie, Theodore Berns, Ernest Warnock, Lawrence DeAngelis, Manager.

Hockey Team

This year Wakefield High School's veteran puck chasers fought their way into fourth place, with five teamsters capturing the all-star first team rating, and one, the second team. The Kirk-coached team played clean, fast hockey and was regarded by many sports writers as the best team in the Eastern Massachusetts Hockey League. The seniors on the team are Co-Captains Warren Whiting and Donald Hicks, Philip Sousa, William Halloran, John Callan, and Theodore Burns. The Kirkmen practiced very hard under difficult conditions. They played the very best brand of hockey with their losses coming by only one goal. Special recognition should be given to the co-captains and especially to the excellent goalie, Donald Halloran.

The scores are as follows:

Wakefield	1	Hudson	2
Wakefield	2	Natick	3
Wakefield	3	Brookline	0
Wakefield	3	Malden	1
Wakefield	1	Lexington	1
Wakefield	3	Dedham	1

Baseball, 1948

The mighty men with the bats swung into action this year with a bang and finished second in the league. They worried Belmont by beating them twice in exciting 2-1 games, but the latter went on to win the championship. Our team had top-notch spirit at all times. Each boy gave a creditable performance as is indicated by the record of having won two-thirds of the games played. In John Moore, the team had one of the best pitchers of the league. Pete Whiting had a pitching record close second to that of Moore's. Warren Cassidy caught for Moore and Whiting. In the field were Dick Scanlon at first, Paul Conway at second, Alfred Confalone at shortstop, and either Dave Hallahan or Henry Palmerino at third. Dave Jackson, Ernie Dill, Joe Rich, John Moore and Pete Whiting alternated in the outfield.

The record was as follows:

	Wakefield	Opponent
Winchester	3	2
Stoneham	11	3
Lexington	7	4
Melrose	1	4
Concord	5	8
Belmont	2	1
Reading	15	0
Lexington	0	3

Cheerleaders

No other school can boast such an outstanding group of attractive girls as Wakefield's cheerleaders. Their hard work since the middle of August has trained them to be the most unified cheerers in the state. Always we will remember their pep, energy, and of course their strutting before the band. Nor should we forget the tireless efforts of head cheerleader, Irene Fazio, and veterans Mileen McGee and Connie Armstrong. The Seniors are Irene Fazio, Mileen McGee, Connie Armstrong, and Midge Landry. Although Midge is a newcomer, she has worked diligently to become one of our outstanding cheerleaders.

Majorettes

This school year there has been an added attraction at all our football games, the Majorettes. The spectators have been thrilled in watching this trim, snappy group perform their intricate stunts. The Majorettes had a busy year; for, besides having a dance in October, they entertained at one of the Parent-Teacher Association meetings by demonstrating their twirling ability to an appreciative audience. A few of the Majorettes also had the privilege of twirling at the Gene Autry Rodeo at the Boston Garden. Many parades have been graced with their presence. At present, many ambitious candidates are striving for the coveted title of "Majorette."

Third Row, Left to Right: Frances DeVita, Lois Windt, Diane Crowell, Shirley Tucker, Leslie Bates, Peggy Sias, Patricia Parker, Mary Milotte.

Girls' Basketball

Basketball has always been the favorite sport with Wakefield girls, and this year was no exception. Approximately seventy-five girls tried out for the team. Their first practice game was on January 27 with Wilmington. They also have played Stoneham and Reading. Although our girls were not champions in the actual score outcomes, they were tops in sportsmanship. These girls were allowed only two afternoons a week on which to practice, but they attended faithfully and played extremely hard. We shall always remember our Basketball Warrior-ettes of 1949.

Girls' Badminton

Although girls are sometimes considered inferior to boys as athletes, badminton is one sport in which they excel. Afternoons, they have worked determinedly, learning the rules and positions for both the single and double games. The girls have been taught footwork and also correct serving and stroking by their apt Coach, Miss Katherine Nichols. Our female badminton enthusiasts have spent much time perfecting their game. But this practicing has not been in vain, for these girls are first-raters in hitting the birdie over the net.

Girls' Tennis Team

Last fall, a group of enthusiastic tennis players gathered, and under the direction of Miss Nichols, held a tennis tournament. The winners of each group contested until one girl survived as winner of the tournament. In the spring, Miss Nichols held practise sessions for many girls who desired to perfect their tennis playing.

Girls' Bowling

On Tuesday afternoon twenty teams meet at the Sunlite Alleys to bowl. Each team, consisting of six members, is under the competent supervision of Miss Nichols. The bowling hours are a source of great enjoyment.

Staking Claims

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1948

While crossing one of the particularly long stretches of desert, the entire wagon train was led astray to Soda Springs by the Good Grooming Group, who declared we needed to wash our faces in some fresh water. The Rifle Club also took a diverging trail to Castle Rock in search of game, but because Mr. Cassano's eyes weren't so sharp as usual, all came back empty-handed.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1948

Under the efficient leadership of cowpuncher Earle Crompton, the Sports Club was formed to provide more recreation on our dusty trip and pacify over-anxious gold panners. At the same time we reached some mountain ranges where the members of the Ski Club enjoyed some fast runs. Shumway didn't get hurt.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, DECEMBER 3 AND 4, 1948

Friday night part of the caravan put on a play, THE GHOST TRAIN, a mystery in three acts. Saturday there was a repeat performance with the result that everyone is imitating Dave Gibbons and Bob Hancock, while trying to figure out what the sound effects crew did with the train.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1948

Senorita Cowing's Spanish Club swung into their pack saddles and headed south of the border into Mexico today. We expect all the Mexicans received them with open arms. Some of the feminine members were a bit lame on their return.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1948

Despite the lack of snow, Christmas was upon us, and was very appropriately celebrated. In the evening we gathered around the campfire to witness an effective tableau of the Christ Child's manger, with a choral background and dramatic narration, and we felt that the true spirit of Christmas was ours.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1948

THE LOOKOUT is doing a great job in writing up our trip. Along with the Student Council, it keeps high spirits and good will on our four-year journey. Soon we prospectors will be staking our claims in new fields. Some of us panned gold today. We have high hopes for tomorrow.

 Second Row, Left to Right: Robert Hancock, Leslie Todd, Shirley Anderson, Barbara DeRocher, Barbara McCaig, Joyce Miller, David Gibbons, William Orne.
 Third Row, Left to Right: Fred Sias, John Day, Edward Cook, John Hacker, Roy Serrentino.

Senior Play Committee

The careful selection of "The Ghost Train" by this year's Senior Play Committee proved to be a wise choice. The committee was also responsible for all other committees necessary to produce the play.

Co-chairmen Jean Connolly and William Larkin were assisted by John Day, Barbara DeRocher, Elaine Stanley, Robert Surrence, Jacquelyn Walsh, Robert Warchol, Bruce Chandler, Alice Redfearn, Evangeline McCabe, Arlene Lamprey, Janice Garratt, and Richard Hammer. Miss Eleanor Abbott served as general adviser.

The Senior Play

On December 3 and 4, 1948, the Class of 1949 added something new to the extensive repertoire of Wakefield High School. The mystery play, The Ghost Train by Arnold Kidley, was effectively portrayed by the following members of our class.

THE CAST

	Friday	Saturday
Richard Winthrop	John Hacker
Elsie Winthrop	Lee Smart	Jean Connolly
Saul Hodgkin	Robert Hancock
Charles Murdock	Edward Cook
Peggy Murdock	Claire Surette	Barbara Perkins
Miss Bourne	Claire Griffin	Barbara DeRocher

Grooming Club

The purpose of the Good Grooming Group is to improve the manners, the appearance, and the social standing of all the girls in our Wakefield High School caravan. The group, led by an outstanding member of the sophomore class, Susanne Knight, has succeeded remarkably well in informing the members of the newest styles and fashions, and of the old and new rules of conduct and culture. Boys have been invited to participate in panel discussions, and outstanding speakers on nutrition, hairdressing, textiles, and social conduct have made the meetings interesting and varied. The Good Grooming Group has fully succeeded in its aims to improve the manners, the appearance, and the social standing of the girls of our caravan.

OFFICERS

President: Susanne Knight, Class of 1951
Vice-President: Diane Purtell, Class of 1951
Secretary: Virginia Annichiarico, Class of 1951
Treasurer: Nancy Pottle, Class of 1951
Faculty Adviser: Miss Elizabeth Upham

The Sports Club

This year, under the supervision of Mr. Earle Crompton, a new organization, the Sports Club, has been formed. Membership in the club entitles students to free admission at home sports events. Special parties, dances, and assemblies are held for members. The 340 students in the Sports Club have elected the following officers:

President: Michael Roberto.
Vice-President: Edward Cook.
Secretary-Treasurer: Carol Bair.

The Sports Club has been a great success this year and promises to do much in the future to promote interest and enthusiasm in school activities.

Homeroom Presidents and Managers

The students in each homeroom elect two officers to serve them during a term of one year. These officers are a president and a homeroom manager. The President presides at all homeroom meetings, contacts the Student Council about any problems arising in his room, and is responsible for the student activity tickets. The managers' duties are to assist in the sales of student activity tickets and in procuring funds for charity. Although these duties are not heavy, they are essential to a harmonious room. Three cheers for a fine group!

The Student Council

The 1949 Student Council was certainly a most energetic and successful group of students. They sponsored many Canteens which were well attended by the students. With the profit gained from these dances the Council bought flowers and baskets of fruit to send to the persons who had been ill for a long period. They also had some pennants made to sell to the students. These pennants had a white drawing of the high school and the white lettering "Wakefield H. S." on a red background. These are but a few of the many accomplishments of the Council. The members deserve our congratulations.

Lookout

Extra! Extra! Read all about it in the Lookout, the W. H. S. school newspaper. There are club activities, sports, gossip, and jokes written and collected by a capable staff headed by Claire Kolbe, Patricia Morico, Phyllis D'Entremont, and faculty adviser, Miss Harriet Dunning. The various articles are assigned, and the general revision is done in room 210. There is always that struggle against the deadline. Then, too, there are the last minute news articles to be rushed to the Item Office. Oh, yes, the galley must be set up, and the finished copies folded. But, somehow, our Lookout pulls through with very few errors. The hard work was rewarded when the publication won third-prize placement in the Columbia National Press Association Contest.

Frontierettes of the Inter Nos

The Inter Nos Club, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth V. Upham, has had an active year. A Welcome Party for the freshmen began the 1948 season. At the next meeting the girls heard Miss Mildred L. Albert speak on "Grooming and Personality." In November the members attended a fashion show put on by the Boston School of Fashion and Design. An Inter Nos supper prepared by the girls themselves proved to be very interesting. They had as their speaker Mrs. Mary Tredinnick, who spoke on "Madonnas," an appropriate subject. The first square dance ever to be held in Wakefield High School was sponsored by the Inter Nos in January, 1949, at which the caller was Mr. Edgar Webber. He quickly showed the steps, and before the evening was over, everyone was swinging his partner around like old times. The Club also heard Mr. Edward E. Oakes speak on "Gems and Jewelry" at the February meeting. Mr. Oakes is a nationally known craftsman, whose fascinating work wins instant admiration. A Mothers' Tea was held in the spring. The last meeting was a beach party which furnished both fun and happy memories for the girls.

The Targeteers

The Wakefield High School Junior Rifle Club meets twice weekly, once at the range in the Greenwood School for target practice and once at the high school for a short and instructive business meeting.

The Rifle Club is associated with the Suburban Interscholastic Rifle League, and also the National Rifle Association, which is known as the N. R. A.

The objects of the club are to instill in the members safe methods of handling and using the rifle, and skill in shooting, which can be developed only by practice and by having a knowledge of the gun and bullets.

This past year the N. R. A. lowered the age limit so that anyone in high school might be eligible to join a recognized rifle club. This club invites anyone who is seriously interested in improving his marksmanship and who wants to learn how to handle a rifle safely to join.

There are six rifles furnished by the U. S. Army. We have two spotting scopes, bought with money raised by members. The rifle club needs and plans to have shooting jackets and gloves in the near future.

We Strike Gold!

We Strike Gold!

FRIDAY, MAY 27, 1949

Our claim is good! Pay dirt was packed with gold today. Although the officials of the Senior W. H. S. Mining Company have put us through rigid tests of our abilities, we seem to be near our goal. The three newer companies look on enviously.

MONDAY, MAY 30, 1949

Our last day in the mine! We have cleared up all our odds and ends. Caps and gowns, to be worn by the Company members at future ceremonies, have arrived by pack train from Boston. Despite the heat, all day we have strutted around in our flowing robes, striking dramatic poses for Sias and his fellow camera enthusiasts

TUESDAY, MAY 31, 1949

The Seniors spent the morning in blissfully slumbering, and the afternoon in leisurely watching the other three companies mine. This evening we attended a mammoth banquet to celebrate our successes. For the evening program a group from the Company reviewed our years together. In spite of the inevitable Freshman Company under foot, we allowed outsiders to hear our program.

FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1949

In an impressive ceremony Superintendent of Mines Kinder gave each Senior his gold certificate. With it came advice for future digging. Tomorrow we leave our old Pack Trail and head for the new Follow-Through Claim.

Fifth Prospector, CATHERINE LEBLANC

JOHN SAMUEL ADAMS, JR.

Ambition, determination, and personality plus are the characteristics shown most consistently by Jack Adams during his four years in our group of forty-niners. Possessed of a brilliant mind and a love of hard work, he is known by all for his curricular and extra-curricular accomplishments. He has been a most capable band manager for the last two years and at the same time has been treasurer of the Ski Club. Jack was chosen chairman of the Lighting and Sound Committee of the Senior Play. He loves to ski, play baseball and football, and to attend school games. After graduation he plans to study chemical engineering at Cornell and become a research chemist. His alertness and resourcefulness assure us that Jack will be happy and successful in the years ahead.

PHYLLIS IRENE ALLEN

One of our attractive drum majorettes is Phyl, who has helped to inspire our football team to victory. In her snappy uniform she has been one of our best twirlers, one who led our school band onto many athletic fields. She likes music and has nurtured her talent in the Glee Club. Her favorite pastimes are dancing and seeing the latest movies. At the Senior Play Phyl was one of our beautiful ushers who added much to the atmosphere. She will enroll at Chandler Business School in September.

NORMA EVELYN ANDERSON

Gus has a keen sense of humor, and is well known for the twinkle in her eyes and her friendly smile. In her junior year she was a member of the Shorthand Club. This year she has been an active member of the Usher and Candy Committee of the Senior Play. Her outside activities are dancing and swimming. Her efficiency in clerical work means success in the business world.

NORMA SHIRLEY ANDERSON

"Andy" is just about the cheeriest one among us. She likes to keep us laughing and happy. A sports enthusiast always, she has participated in basketball, field hockey, tennis, softball, and bowling. For three years she has added to the Glee Club and for one year to the Chorus. Her interest in acting shows, as she is an active member of the Junior Quannapowitt Players and also an understudy in the Senior Play. She hopes to become a comptometer operator. We're sure she'll always be happy as she goes about sharing her joy.

JEAN MARTHA ANDREWS

This is Miss Andrews, known to her many, many friends as "Andy." She is always peppy and full of fun, and ever ready to help a friend in need. She is one of the most loyal pals anyone could have. Much is to be said about her extra-curricular activities. She was a steady player in all the sports: badminton, field hockey, and basketball all her four years—not to mention membership in the Chorus and Senior Play Usher Committee. Although she doesn't admit it, she is one of Miss Hirst's best art pupils. She shows her talent by being a member of the Classbook Art Staff. It is certain that she will be a complete success in her future vocation as an interior decorator.

CONSTANCE MARGARET ARMSTRONG

For the past two years Connie has been one of our peppy cheerleaders. Besides being a valuable member of the Student Council, she has been Co-chairman of the Decorating Committee of the Senior Play. An undying love for horses is held by Connie, who spends much of her time riding on her favorite animal. In the future she plans to become a professional photographer.

ROBERT OLIVER BAKER

One might infer by the way "Beans" draws out his words that he is a rather slow-moving individual; however, a glance at his varied activities shows that his capabilities are unbounded. During his four years at high school, he was a key end on our football team and, in his third year, an able catcher on the baseball squad. Also, Bob is musically inclined, having played the drums in the band for two years. Socially Bob is just as versatile and popular, having served his class on the Junior Prom Committee, his school as General Chairman of the New Year's Eve Frolic, and his pals as secretary of H-Y. The admiration that his fellow students bestow on him is reflected in the fact that he was elected Homeroom President in his junior year, athletic representative, Homeroom Manager, and Co-secretary of the Classbook Business Staff in his Senior year. Curricularly speaking, Bob's grades have been well above average, and all his teachers as well as his friends know that sincere Bob will do well at the University of Massachusetts, where he plans to study agricultural engineering.

RICHARD ALLEN BENNETT

Dick has a mischievous smile and an original sense of humor. His apt expressions bring much enjoyment to his friends. A member of the Senior Play Stage Crew, he demonstrated his ability. His favorite pastimes are hunting, fishing, and swimming. Dick is going to seek his fortune as a member of the United States Navy. His quiet friendliness and willingness to help, which have endeared him to all, will insure his success in the service.

THEODORE BERNIS

Ted has always been rather a shy fellow in classes. He is a very modest young man, one who has been preparing for the last four years to enter Burdett College or the Boston School of Accounting. During his high school days he has played on the Wakefield High School baseball team, and also on the hockey team. His hobby is boxing, and judging from his expertness, he excels in this sport. He has our best wishes for continued success.

EVELYN RUTH BIRCH

Evie is another talented musician. She is one of our favorite band clarinetists who has added to the artistic success of the musicians. For four years she has also played in the high school orchestra. She was one of our champion basketball forwards for two years; she has batted many home runs for our softball team; and her bowling techniques have made her one of our highest scorers during her sophomore year. Evie is a rollerskating queen on any floor. She also enjoys dancing and swimming. Because of her desire to help others, she plans to become a nurse.

LILLIAN ANNE BLATZ

Our dependable classmate, Lillian, always tackles her work with a smile. She has many school activities to her credit. "Lil" was an Inter Nos member in her first and second years. In her Junior year she was an industrious worker in the Short-hand Club. She passed the Auto-Driving course and was a member of the Senior Play Wardrobe Committee in the fourth year. She enjoys cooking and sewing, dancing, and roller skating. We know that she will make many more friends by her entrance into the business world.

RICHARD BORDEN

A hard worker, always dependable, was the high praise bestowed upon Rosie Borden by fellow members of the Senior Play Lighting and Sound Committee. In fact throughout his school life he has always been on the spot when someone was needed to perform a difficult task. During his freshman year, Dick was chosen manager of the baseball team—the same team that finished first in the league that year. He was also a star member of his homeroom basketball squad during his sophomore year. Rosie's outside hobbies are varied. He likes to dance and collect records, and he spends much of his spare time in fixing up his rumpus room. His ambition to own his own pattern-making shop as soon as possible after graduation is a commendable one.

FRANCIS JOSEPH BOWMAN

During his four years in our class, Frank has been an interested participant in many school activities. His reputation as a dependable worker was established early in his freshman year, when he volunteered to help out in the Band, doing such a fine job that he was asked to remain throughout his sophomore year. When a track team was formed in 1945, Frank was one of the first boys to join. He was a member of the outstanding Sophomore Hop Committee which did much to make the party a real success. His initiative and ambition made him an outstanding member of the Senior Play Publicity Committee and of the Classbook Editorial Staff. After graduation from high school, Frank plans to attend Boston College and then law school.

BERNICE BUTT

Have you seen a girl with a pleasing smile and a friendly personality around lately? Why, of course, you're right! It's Bernice Butt or "Bunnie" as her friends like to call her. She loves to get her hands on a book and read to her heart's content. But she gets a real thrill out of finding a new poem for her anthology. If you can't find Bunnie reading, you will probably find her adding a few stamps to her large foreign collection. She has chosen nursing for her career.

JOHN MARSDEN CALLAN

Johnny is a very active lad who enjoys and has participated in football, basketball, hockey, and track. He has worked on the Classbook staff and the History Committee, as well as officiating as stage manager for our play. He has a personality that finds its way into everybody's heart and a generosity that is unequalled. His seriousness is well shown by his intellectual preparation. Johnny loves road racing and has shown his ability many times. Next year he plans to further his education at college. Lucky college!

DOROTHY GRACE CAMUSO

Dottie has acquired many friends during her four years of high school because of her genial attitude. Most of her time is spent either in reading or in dancing. She is also very fond of singing and has been a member of the Glee Club for four years. Upon completion of high school she plans to work in a department store. We are sure that her diligence as a worker and her sincerity as a friend will win promotion for her.

AMELIA PHYLLIS CAPONE

Easily recognized by her sparkling wit and ever-present laugh, Amelia is one of our prettiest girls. This dark-haired lass with the flashing brown eyes has the best collection of humorous anecdotes in our halls. Often she can be found at the bowling alley, and in warm weather many of us have seen her demonstrating graceful swings at one of the local tennis courts. Among her activities are the Inter Nos Club and the Property Committee of the Senior Play. The excellent discrimination which she uses in her own becoming hair styles will, without doubt, help her in her work at Wilfred Academy.

DOROTHY ANN CASEY

"Dotty" is one of the more active members of the class. Whenever there is a dance, you know that this cute little girl has helped to make it a success. Her activeness and excellent work explain why she was chosen as Secretary of Spanish Club for 1948 and 1949 and Corresponding Secretary of Inter Nos for 1948 and 1949. Among her other activities are Sports Club, Make-up Committee for Senior Play, Senior Party Committee, and Classbook Staff. After graduation Dotty is off to college, where we predict great things for her.

JACQUELINE CAVANAGH

Fun loving, good natured, and cheerful, are just some of the adjectives which describe our Jackie. That she is a capable and tireless worker has been proved by her able assistance on the Class Color Committee, and the Candy and Usher Committee for the Senior Play. She is a great enjoyer of sports, and she has played basketball and softball. Jackie will attend business school for preparation as a private secretary.

BRUCE WARWICK CHANDLER

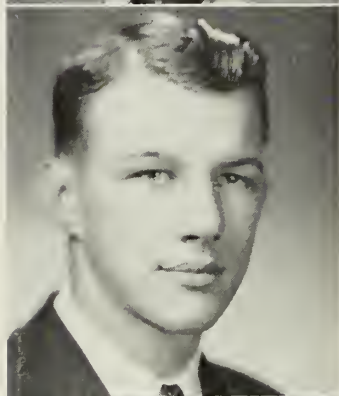

The boy with the big smile for everyone—that's Bruce. Always one of the outstanding members of his class, both scholastically and socially, Bruce is destined to be a successful lawyer no matter where he may practice. For four years, Bruce has been a mainstay in the trumpet section of the school band and has served cheerfully on the Senior Play Executive Committee. In addition, he has been one of the associate editors of the Classbook. An eager sportsman, Bruce has played homeroom basketball and is fond of swimming, camping, and nature study. He plans to attend Dartmouth College.

EARL HOWARD CHRISTOPHER

Earl, known as Chris among his friends, has been a shining light in track. Road-racing and cross-country running are his special hobbies. His charming manner and droll humor have made him one of the best liked members of our class. We know that he will make a success of his study of aviation his present ambition.

PAUL COLE

With his fun-loving spirit, Coke is one of the jolliest members of our class. He enjoys any sport and is always ready for a good time. He has spent four years in the band, and three years in the orchestra. Coke also was on the Lighting and Sound committee for the Senior Play. His likable character makes him popular with everyone with whom he comes in contact. He enjoys the study of electricity and would like to become an electrician, although he thinks he might be taken into military service. Whichever field he chooses, we know he will become a success.

JOSEPH COLWELL

Joe is one of the friendliest fellows in our class. With the exception of his junior year he has been out on the football field doing his best for the team. Although he is not so big as some of the others, his teammates will assure you that he was a hard man to stop when carrying the pigskin for Wakefield High. This quiet determination certainly will enable him to advance quickly when and if he enters the service after high school.

ALFRED CONIAMONE

Fred is one of the most likable and most sincere boys in our class. To many, he appears shy, but to his friends he is known for his consideration. As a lover of sports, he enjoys particularly baseball and football. Because of his wide interest in mechanical drawing, we are certain that he will succeed as a draftsman.

CHESTER CONFALONE

One of our boys who is well-known to the underclassmen is Chet. He does not like to talk about himself, but everyone who is acquainted with him knows what a wonderful personality he has. As Homeroom Manager his freshman year, he exhibited sterling qualities which will be needed in the United States Air Force—his goal.

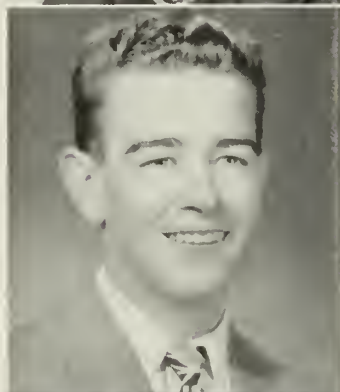

JEAN CONNOLLY

A sunny smile and a friendly disposition are characteristic of Jeanne. Her kindness and amiability have made her a natural choice as Vice-President of the class of 1949 for three consecutive years. She has also served in several other capacities, and these include being a member of the Glee Club during the freshman year, membership on the Student Council during second, third, and fourth years, co-chairman of the Senior Play Committee, a member of the cast, and on the Year Book Staff. She is also actively interested in sports and qualified as a member of the basketball, softball, and field hockey team. Other interests are skiing, swimming, and hiking. She plans to further her education at Bates College.

EDWARD COOK

The handsome fellow who joined our class last year is none other than Eddie Cook, one of the most active persons in the school. During his junior year he was Homeroom Manager, captain of his Homeroom Basketball Team, and a member of the Ski Club. This year's record of diligent work will be hard to surpass. Some of his more important activities have included Co-Editor of the Yearbook, President of his homeroom, a member of the Lookout Staff and of the Student Council. Besides these, we must not forget to mention his great performance in the Senior Play. After graduation, he would like to go to college on the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Course.

WILLIAM SEWELL COX

Known to his classmates for his witty expressions, Bill has brought much enjoyment to school days. Whenever Bill is around, everyone is sure to have a good time. He is a lad who likes the outdoors, hence his hobbies are hunting, fishing and trapping. Bill served faithfully on the Class Will Committee and the Transportation Committee for the Senior Play. Since he is interested in farming, he hopes to attend Stockbridge School of Agriculture.

MARGARET ELIZABETH CURRAN

Near the top of the popularity list is Peggy. If an argument is what you want, don't go to Peg. She will just laugh off any remarks, and in a casual manner she will tell a humorous incident or two. By the time you finish talking to her, you'll find yourself feeling as joyous and friendly as Peg herself. Her attractive personality will be helpful to her as a telephone operator. Don't ever run out of jokes, Peggy!

LOUISE ANNE DALE

Louise is an attractive lass who reserves her gayer moments for her more intimate friends. Her natural reticence plus her readiness for fun, her appreciation of true friendliness, and her conscientious nature spell loyalty to her classmates. We are sure that her debut in the business world will be a promising one.

VIRGINIA ANN DAMON

This lively Senior is always in the midst of any excitement. Wherever there's good fun, you'll find Ginny. The sincere, straightforward way in which she does things, and her continual good sportsmanship have made her everybody's friend. Bowling is her favorite sport. Her proficiency in business essentials is an excellent foundation for her future work in the field of commerce.

JOHN THOMPSON DAY

John is one of the most active boys in our class. He was a member of the Glee Club in his first year, a hard worker on the Sophomore Hop Committee, and manager of the basketball team for three years. That Jack is very popular is shown in his election to the Student Council and the Classbook Staff in his Senior year. An enthusiastic skier, Jack is, of course, a member of the Ski Club. Jack also was on the Senior Play Executive Committee and a member of the Senior Play Cast. He is an active member of the Sports Club and has worked hard to make several of the High School dances successful. Jack's hobbies are dancing, sailing, and skiing. Boston College will be lucky to have Jack as a student.

DORIS ESTELLE DEAN

Dor is a friendly girl who has graced many Home Talent nights with her singing ability. This year she was one of our snappy Majorettes who performed many intricate twirls on our football field. Her other activities include Glee Club, basketball, bowling, field hockey, softball, and the Inter Nos Club. Her pastimes are knitting, horseback riding, and photography. She plans to enter the "Wafs" for three years.

LAWRENCE FRANCIS DE ANGELIS

Larry is a fun-loving lad whose liveliness is a source of fun for all. His humorous remarks and ready smiles have added much to the enjoyment of our school days. An enthusiastic sportsman, he was manager of the Hockey Team during his third and fourth years and worked wholeheartedly for his team. As a participant in homeroom basketball, he proved further his love for sports. In his Senior year he was elected to the Classbook Business Staff and served on the Senior Play Publicity Committee. Much of his time is spent with his two hobbies, dancing and coin-collection. His chief academic interest is accounting, which field he expects to enter.

PHYLLIS ANNE D'ENTREMONT

"Versatility" is synonymous with Phyl. She will be remembered most by her classmates for her sweet singing voice. A member of Glee Club for four years, she has brightened many a concert with a charming solo. Besides her musical talent she has a flair for writing. For three years Phyl has been on the Lookout Staff and this year has been Co-Editor. She has also been a valuable member of the Yearbook Editorial Staff. An excellent athlete and a wonderful sport, Phyl has participated in girls' basketball, softball, tennis, field hockey, and Rifle Club. Outside of school she has earned her Red Cross lifesaver's badge in swimming. Her friendliness, thoughtfulness, and sweetness will make Phyl a true success in nursing.

JOSEPH EDWARD DE ROCHE

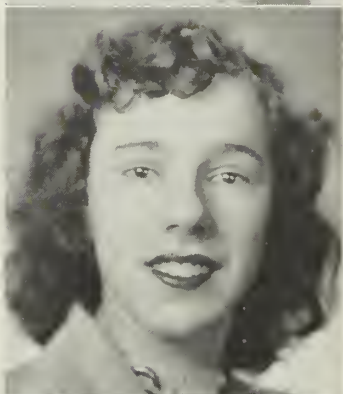

Joe is that care-free redhead always in the center of the sports activities. He has been active in football, intramural basketball, bowling, and golf. As a golfer he outshines all his classmates. In fact we expect to see him win the National Open in the near future. We are sure that his determination and ambition gained through sports will aid him in business.

BARBARA ANNE DE ROCHIER

Barb is a class leader. Instinctively tactful and pleasant, she deserves her popularity. Barb's main outside interests are music and sports. She is a star in girls' basketball, a good player in several other sports, and a feminine rarity—a true baseball fan. Her fine portrayal of the comical "Miss Bourne" in the Senior Play was a memorable performance. Barb further demonstrated her efficiency as a member of the Senior Play Executive Committee, the Senior Party Committee, and as Co-Editor-in-Chief of the Oracle. An honor student throughout high school, Barb will surely find success at Katharine Gibbs.

KATHERINE LOUISE DeVEAU

Kay is an energetic lass who has the ability to create an atmosphere of fun. With the aid of her subtle humor and bright remarks, she has become a favorite among her classmates. As a sports writer for the Lookout Staff, she has displayed her talents as a reporter. During her Senior year, she served on the Senior Play Property Committee and the Graduation Decoration Committee. She may well be proud of her skill in photography and dancing, the two hobbies to which she devotes much of her time. Katherine plans to become an office worker and to further her business education in night school.

LORRAINE MARY DeVEAU

The saying that "lovely things come in small packages" is especially true in the case of Shorty. Her likable personality is evident when first you see her smiling face. Her witty remarks and joking manner have brightened many a dull day. Always willing to cooperate, Shorty is admired by all of her classmates. In addition to ushering at the Senior Play, she has sung in the Chorus. She likes to swim and bowl, to mention but a few of her activities. Her heart's desire is to be a sales girl in a record store. We know she will please everyone, for, with her sweetness, how can she help it?

CHARLES WENTWORTH DeWOLF, JR.

Charlie is undoubtedly one of the best known members of his class. He is a great lover of sports and has played football his first two years, and home-room basketball at every opportunity. One of our more sophisticated boys, he manages at the same time to be one of our friendliest. This friendliness, coupled with his willingness to help others, is the secret of his personality. Charlie hopes to attend Tufts College where we are sure he will be as well liked and as happy as he has been with us for the past four years. Whatever he may do, we wish him the best of wishes for a happy life.

MARY JOANNE Di TONNO

"Chunkie," as Mary is called by her friends, is always bubbling with energy and life. Mary was a member of the Glee Club her freshman and sophomore years, and served on the Makeup Committee for the Senior Play. Her hobbies are, as you might expect, swimming and dancing. We hope that she never loses her vivacity.

CHARLOTTE MARY DOUCETTE

"Beanie" is that likable lass with the big brown eyes. A truly wonderful sport, she has participated in many of the girls' activities including golf and bowling. She has worked diligently on the Usher and Candy Committee for the Senior Play and has proved her typing ability by serving on the Classbook Staff. Her hobbies are dancing, bowling, and skating. She plans to become a secretary in which position her perseverance and accuracy will assist her.

RITA MARY DUMONT

Along with her conscientious work in her studies and her unassuming manner, this sweet little blonde has one of the merriest natures we know. Her interest in playing the piano and in dancing has helped her gain steadfast friends. She has proved to be capable and hardworking both in the Shorthand Club in her junior year, and on the Publicity Committee for the Senior Play. With her cordiality and her ability Rita will be well liked in her chosen role of office worker.

JOAN STEPHANIA DYCYAN

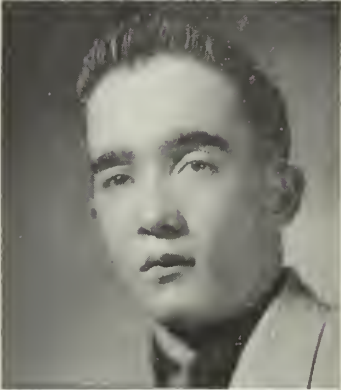

Because of her sincerity and friendliness, Joannie has gained a host of loyal and admiring friends among her fellow students. Her activities are numerous. In her freshman year she sang in the Glee Club; and in her sophomore year she became a member of the Chorus. Her membership in the Shorthand Club displayed her seriousness for her work in the commercial field. During her fourth year, she worked on the Senior Play Wardrobe Committee and joined the Auto-Driving Class. Among her many hobbies, skiing, ice skating, and dancing rank highest with her. We shall miss Joan.

SHIRLEY EVELYN EDWARDS

Vivacious Shirl is one of our most popular girls. If you looked to the ends of the earth, you would never find a sweeter, more likable person. Her willingness has been proved by her splendid cooperation on the Sophomore Hop Committee and on the Classbook Staff. She was also an active member of the Student Council and Inter Nos for three years. Her excellent portrayal of "Julia," which won her fame in the Senior Play, will never be forgotten. Shirley's ambition is to become an actress, and she plans to attend Leland Powers School of Dramatics. We know that with her work, talent, and zest for acting she will succeed in her chosen career.

GEORGE EGAN

At first glance George appears to be a rather quiet lad, but once you know him, you find he has all the characteristics of a real pal. Always up to some mischief, he appreciates a good joke even upon himself. His sincerity and grand sense of humor will prove invaluable to him after he enters the U. S. Navy.

ROSALIE MARY FASCIANO

Because her attractive petiteness carries an endless amount of liveliness and happiness, "Ricky" has become a girl whom her classmates adore. Although she has an enthusiasm for all sports, she spends much of her leisure time ice skating and bowling. An interest in her future vocation led her to join the Shorthand Club in her junior year. Her service on the Graduation Decoration Committee, in addition to her assistance on the Senior Play Publicity Committee, proved her business ability and willingness to cooperate. Whether she becomes a stenographer or a bookkeeper, we know that Rosalie will be an efficient and conscientious worker.

IRENE BLANCHE FAZIO

Our peppy head cheerleader is one of the most popular girls at Wakefield High School. She has been an active member of the Glee Club and the Inter Nos Club. Renee, who spends most of her spare time in playing the piano, likes to dance and chat with her friends. With her vivacity and enthusiasm she is sure to be a success at the Modern School of Fashion and Design.

BARBARA ANN FIELD

One of our sports-minded seniors is Barb. She has been an energetic basketball forward and has succeeded in becoming one of our highest scorers. During her four years in high school she has also been a softball star with a long list of homeruns to her credit. She has also been a faithful drum majorette. In addition she has a reporter's nose for sports news and writes accurate accounts of our teams for the Look-out. As might be expected, she enjoys dancing. Barb plans to attend Burdett College next year.

RUTH ANNE FILORAMO

Ruthie is the girl with the smile that reveals her sunny disposition. She was an able worker on the Senior Party Committee and she also was on the Usher and Candy Committee for the Senior Play. In her freshman year she was a member of the Glee Club. Her ability as a typist is illustrated by the work she did for the Classhook. This experience in typing should serve as good training for the office work she plans to do following graduation.

CHARLOTTE LAWSON FINDLAY

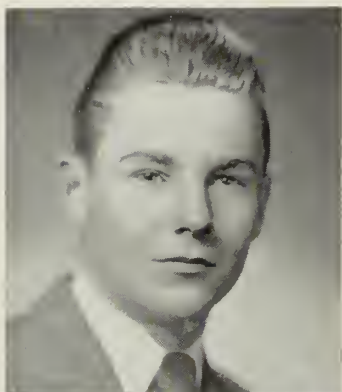

Do you remember that sweet majorette with the winsome personality? That's right—it's Charl Findlay. Her earnest efforts to be a good baton twirler were certainly rewarded. She helped make the Majorettes' Dance and the New Year's Frolic great successes. In addition she has been active in bowling, a member of the Classhook Business Staff, the Look-out, and the Senior Prom Committee. After graduation she plans to work at Lever Brothers until she enters Malden Business School in the fall. With your diligence and good humor, Charl, you will be tops in your class.

NORMAN WINSOR FINNEY

Norm has set his sights on the Navy, which he plans to join in June. Just beyond this goal he sees a career in electricity and welding. At school he has enjoyed various activities. With a fine tenor voice, he has been a member of the Glee Club for three years. He served also on the Lighting and Sound Committee of the Senior Play. He is, moreover, an ardent boatman and photographer. We're sure he'll go far with his engaging charm.

ARTHUR WALLACE FITT, JR.

Wally is one of those jovial fellows who can always be found whenever there is fun. He is readily recognized by his long stride and his quick, likable grin. His easy going manner and his carefree attitude give him a nonchalant air admired by his classmates. We are sure the Wakefield High's loss will be the U. S. Navy's gain.

MARJORIE LOIS FLEWELLING

Marjorie is one of our fellow students who hails from Lynnfield Center. To most of us she is known as Margie. She has not been active in any of the school sports, but she has been an enthusiastic rooter at our football and baseball games. She was a member of the Sophomore Hop Committee and she worked also on the Wardrobe Committee of the Senior Play. Her hobby is skating. The University of Massachusetts can expect to receive an excellent student when Margie enters there next fall.

JANET DOROTHY FOSTER

Janet is one of the most popular and ambitious members of our class. "Pinkie," as she is called by her friends, has participated in such activities as bowling and golf, has been an enthusiastic member of the Inter Nos and Sports Clubs, Wardrobe Committee of the Senior Play, and Classbook Staff. Janet is very capable and she works hard at whatever task she is given. In whatever spare time she can find, she enjoys knitting and swimming. Enrollment at Lasell Junior College is her chief goal at present.

FRANKLIN JOSEPH FOTINO

In his four years in high school Fort has rated highly with his classmates. His witty remarks and fun-loving personality have proved him to be everybody's friend. His enthusiasm for sports is shown in his outstanding football ability. In his quarterback position, his superb passing has accounted for many of Wakefield's touchdowns. Also included in his sports program are baseball and homeroom basketball. His efficiency and alertness as a Homeroom President have been evident this year. After graduation, Fort plans to enter a college preparatory school, and then to proceed with his studies to become a teacher.

MARTHA EILEEN FOX

Martha, one of our most brilliant students, helped loyally and enthusiastically in making our Classbook a success. She is sincere, cooperative, quiet, and unassuming. In addition to her sincerity, her delightful sense of humor has gained her many a friend. Among Martha's many pastimes are music, swimming, and watching Major League Baseball. Because of her lovable nature and her academic record, she has a glowing future ahead in her college career.

SHIRLEY MAY FRITZ

If you think she is a serious miss, you are mistaken. Our Shirley has an ever-ready sense of humor—a treasure which has endeared her to her friends. Among her activities she lists Glee Club in her freshman year, Sophomore Hop Committee, Inter Nos, Class Motto and Color Committee, and the Senior Play Decorating Committee. This pleasant girl never misses a Wakefield High football game, and she has played a valuable part on the girls' basketball and badminton teams. Her skill in knitting is remarkable, and another pastime in which she is proficient in swimming. After graduation she will attend the Chandler Secretarial School to become a medical secretary.

MARGARET EVELYN FULLER

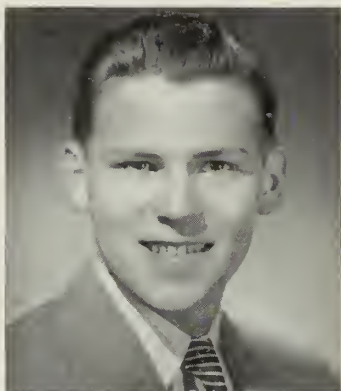

A quiet girl is Margaret, who reserves her livelier moments for her intimate friends. Her athletic ability was evident when she was a member of the golf and baseball teams in her sophomore and junior years. She served on the bowling team in her sophomore and junior years, and is still often found in the bowling alley demonstrating her skill. Although she has been modest concerning it, Margaret is an accomplished pianist. She has gone far towards her ambition to be a legal secretary, and we are sure she will be an efficient one.

WILLIAM HERBERT FULLER

"Coach," as Bill is known in the gymnastic circle, has been one of our hard luck athletes. For the first three years he trained hard to play football. Then, at the beginning of his senior year as he began to see the fruit of his work, he received a back injury which prevented him from ever playing football again. During Bill's last two years, he has been a leader in the Posture Group. This year he has spent much time in making the Sports Club's activities a success. His hobbies are woodworking, shooting, and acrobatics. He is planning to become an instructor in physical education.

HERBERT JAMES FURNESS, JR.

Good-looking, likable, and talented, Junie is one of our outstanding musicians. During his four years at Wakefield High School, his piano and sweet, mellow trombone have brought him success and popularity. His ardent work on the Senior Play Property Committee and the Classbook Business Staff, along with his faithfulness in the band for three years, proves that he is both cooperative and capable. The New England Conservatory of Music beckons this accomplished pianist. We are anticipating his first concert.

JANICE ALRICH GARRATT

Janice is an ambitious student who plans to enter Boston University. Her pleasing personality and genuine friendliness will help her greatly in her work in the social field. She bears no grudges and is a true friend to all. "Jan" sang in the Glee Club her first, second, and fourth years, and belonged to Inter Nos in her third year. She also has been an active member of the Ski Club and the Lookout Staff, and she has served on the Senior Play and Wardrobe Committees. Janice likes to ski, swim, and skate. We hope her ambition to travel around the world will be fulfilled.

GORDON GATES

"G," an unobtrusive member of our class, has made himself known through his athletic ability. Many a tough football game has been pulled through by his spirit and desire to win. He played homeroom basketball for two years and was a member of the Band in his freshman year. He has served also as Co-chairman of the Property Committee for the Senior Play. Much of his time has been in the Woodworking Shop where he excels. Wherever a helping hand is needed, he is there.

LORRAINE ANN GERRY

A cheery "Hi, there!" announces the arrival of our peppy, petite Gerry. Her friendly nature and her jolly laugh are but two of her pleasing attributes. If determination means success, we're sure that Lorraine, in her field of Army nursing, will soon put some lucky soldier back on the road to health.

JOAN MARIE GIANFERRI

Dignified Joan plans to make office work her career. To obtain further training she has assisted in the high school office for two years. She assisted her classmates by serving on the Senior Play Make-Up Committee. Her two favorite hobbies are dancing and participating in sports, and her basketball playing and bowling have received much admiration. We shall remember Joan as a sincere friend and a loyal student of Wakefield High School.

DAVID JOHN GIBBONS

Those of us who saw the Senior Play, The Ghost Train, will always remember this Lynnfield lad for his superb portrayal of Teddie Deakin, better known as Detective Inspector Morrison of Scotland Yard. The foremost thought in everyone's mind was "He must be a professional." Dave is a polite boy with a grand sense of humor and cooperation. He has gained a host of friends during his four years here, and he has strengthened these friendships by working hard on the Look-out Staff, Glee Club, Senior Play, and the Editorial Staff and Art Staff of the Classbook. David's talents are not limited to the theatrical field, though. He is equally highly qualified to be a commercial artist in some future day. The Massachusetts School of Art is going to gain a capable and likable student in the fall.

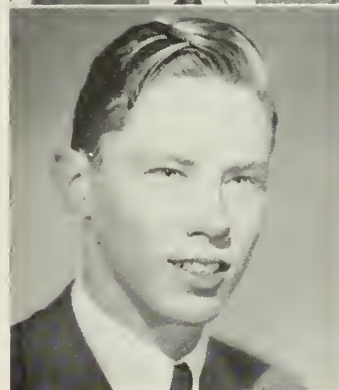

JOHN JAMES GIBBONS

"Gibbie" has what you might call a flying bug. He has scored high many times, not only in a plane but also with his friends. His explosive smile and debonair attitude amuse all his friends. Gib plans to study mechanics. No doubt he will continue his interest in aviation. Probably he will have very few downwinds in his flight through life. He is an outstanding classmate and a true friend.

JOHN RAYMOND GODDARD

Jack is the boy with that infectious smile and pleasant personality. No matter how blue you may be, he is sure to cheer you. If an argument is what you want, don't go to Jack, for he is known to be one of the best-natured boys at Wakefield High School. Among his hobbies are hunting and fishing. For the past two years he has been an active member of the Rifle Club. After graduation he plans to enter an engineering school.

JOHN ALDEN GOODWIN

Although Johnny is a bit taciturn, he has not gone through four years of high school without making his share of friends. He is dependable and is always glad to help with whatever he can. During his sophomore and junior years, he was a member of the Rifle Club. Then he joined the Hi-Y of which he is still an active member. He expects to continue his education in the United States Army.

WILLIAM HOWARD GRAFF

Bill's athletic ability distinguishes him. He has played football for three years and baseball for two years. His quiet, studious manner might fool one, but underneath he possesses a fine sense of humor. He has been a diligent worker on both the Junior Prom Committee and the Classbook Business Staff. He hopes to become a doctor, and, if he does, we shall be among his lucky patients.

MARILYN LOUISE GRAVES

Lyn is that attractive girl from Greenwood. Throughout the school years, she has kept busy with extra-curricular activities including Glee Club, Girls' Chorus, bowling, and the Senior Party Committee. Dancing is one of her favorite pastimes. She plans to work in the office of the Boston and Maine Railroad after graduation.

CLAIRE LOUISE GRIFFIN

The ability to mingle with her associates and friends and her radiant disposition insure for Claire a promising future. Her bubbling personality has won her many a friend. She enjoys acting, as we realized by her excellent performance in the Senior Play. She is another of the industrious girls we see hurrying through the corridors. What keeps her so busy? Sports, reading, socials, Inter Nos, Lookout, and dancing. Claire's ambition is to obtain her degree in nursing. We know her patients will never be in low spirits while Claire is around, and it is a sure bet that her corner of life will ripple with an undercurrent of merriment.

BARBARA ANN GUTTADAURO

Barb is a friendly, likable member of our class. During her four years at Wakefield High, she has been interested in sports, participating in golf, bowling, and basketball. She has worked diligently as Co-chairman of the Wardrobe Committee of the Senior Play, and has been an editor on the Classbook. Her pastimes include roller skating, swimming, and horseback riding. She will enroll at Kathleen Dell, a secretarial school, to fit herself for the position of confidential secretary.

JOHN CHESTER HACKER, JR.

Without J. C. Hacker, that tall, good-looking lad, our class just would not be complete. His activities during his four years here are numerous. He went out for football in his freshman year and was also homeroom manager. He was elected for three years to Student Council, where he proved himself most valuable. He belonged to Ski Club in his junior year and served as secretary of the club in his senior year. Also in his last year he served on the Photography and Senior Party Committees. In our Senior Play, John certainly acted the part of a frustrated husband to perfection. His friendly manner has brought him an abundance of friends who know he is headed for success.

RICHARD CHARLES HALE

Dick is not an over-active member of his class, but on the contrary, is a sincere and conscientious worker. He is rather reserved in his ways, but the opposite in his studies. Dick was on the Junior Prom Committee his third year and the Senior Party Committee his senior year. His hobby is skating, and no doubt there will be smoother ice for Dick in his chosen field, accounting.

DAVID JOHN HALLAHAN

Dave came from Melrose High at the beginning of the sophomore year. At Melrose, he had already exhibited an interest in athletics by playing baseball. For the past three years he has been one of the best fielders on the baseball team and a most consistent hitter. This year Dave was elected to the Business Staff of the Classbook, where he worked hard for its success. Ranking high among his hobbies are horses and sports. When Dave leaves for Boston College next year we shall miss his affable manner and his keen judgment.

WILLIAM HALLORAN

One of the most conscientious members of our class is Billy. He is best remembered for his effective hockey. Those of us who have seen him practicing and playing know how much his support has aided Wakefield in having one of the best teams in the state. Billy's three hockey letters are the well-earned bounty for all his efforts. In his spare time, he likes horseback riding. Next year Billy plans to go to preparatory school and then to Northeastern University.

RICHARD GERRY HAMMER

Dick Hammer is a sports minded fellow. His active participation in the Ski Club during his junior and senior years, and his outside interest in swimming, hockey, football and all other sports make Dick one of the most athletic members of our class. His versatile abilities are clearly demonstrated by his activities during his Senior year. He was a leading member of the Senior Play Executive Committee for our Senior Play. Our class history committee has decided that Dick is the best fitted to write the class history and he is attacking this difficult job with the same ambition which characterizes his work on the Yearbook Editorial Staff. After graduating from high school, Dick plans to become an architect and a plumbing and heating contractor. We all hope that his future life will be as happy and successful as his school career has been.

ROBERT FRED HANCOCK

Look who is coming down the corridor! It's Bob, one of our most loyal classmates. Always shall we remember him as Saul Hodgkin, the station master, in the Senior Play. After graduating he hopes to enter prep school and then transfer to an engineering school. He also wishes to finish three more years in the U. S. N. R., V-6 Organized Division 1-5. Robert was in the Boys' Glee Club his freshman year, he was a member of the Sophomore Hop Committee and orchestra manager his sophomore and junior years, a member of the Band, and of the Christmas Party Dance Committee his Senior Year. Among his many hobbies are engines, cars, and boats. We shall miss him!

BARBARA ANN HARRIS

Barb is a sincere person who is always willing to lend a helping hand. Her varied activities include basketball, bowling, softball, Inter Nos Club, Class Color Committee, and Senior Play Make-Up Committee. She always tries to do her best regardless of problems involved. We are certain that someday she will prove to be a valuable secretary.

BARBARA ANN HARTFORD

Barb is the pretty miss with the lovely brown hair and the fascinating smile. Her sincerity and devotion to all her friends have made her one of the best-liked girls of our class. Her wit and her deep appreciation of others will remain in our memory. We wish her the best of success in the world of business.

RONALD WILLIAM HAWKES

Ronnie's shy smile and modest manner make him appear to be a rather reticent lad at first acquaintance, but when you know him better, you find that he possesses all the characteristics of a real pal and a good sport. He is well known by his flashy clothes and his love of improving his car. Ronnie's sincerity and keen sense of humor have helped him win permanent friends. To mention but one of his many accomplishments is to call him a proficient swimmer. Ronnie plans a future in the U. S. Navy. We know that he will make a fine admiral. Don't disappoint us, now!

LILLIAN NORMA HEATH

An amiable personality and a dignified manner are only two of the many qualities that Norma possesses. She is one of those rare persons who seem to radiate friendliness. Her ready smile, neat appearance, and her good-natured attitude—along with her conscientious efforts—will be invaluable aids to her either as a bookkeeper or a stenographer.

JOHN FRANCIS HERLIHY

Unobtrusively, John is a class leader. Conscientious and brilliant, he is an outstanding student. Everything he undertakes is done thoroughly and well. But John is by no means a grind, for he has many interests. To know him is to like him. His perpetually amiable disposition has gained him many friends. His high school activities include two years of Spanish Club, the Senior Play Publicity Committee, and the Class-book Editorial Staff. Quite interested in sports, he plays an excellent game of golf. Although his future after Boston College is indefinite, John, always a gentleman, is assured of a notable career.

DONALD HICKS

If you ever see a professional hockey player nicknamed Duna, you'll know he is an alumnus of Wakefield High '49 and was one of their best hockey players. Duna has played hockey his last two years at Wakefield and as captain has led the 1949 Team to an admirable record. He was also elected to the Student Council his Senior year, serving his term of office very diligently. Lucky is the prep school or college that will have this blue-eyed fellow with the crew hair-cut in its enrollment.

MARJORIE JEAN HIRD

We know when Jean is in the room, because she seems to be the center of attraction, especially in whispering. She always has something exciting to talk about. Although Jean has not taken part in many of the school's sport activities, she is nevertheless one of our strong supporters. She was a member of the Glee Club her freshman year and of the Chorus her sophomore year. Jean also has been a member of the Inter Nos Club, has played on the softball team, has been a member of the bowling team, has served on the Junior Prom Committee, and also worked as a member of the Business Staff of the Classbook. After graduating Jean intends to go to Lasell Junior College.

HOWARD HODSDON

Howie has spent his four high school years making friends. He is a good sport and is always eager to help anyone. Although he has never done anything spectacular in school, he will always be considered as one of Wakefield's good students. In the future Howie plans to join the United States Navy. A desire to travel is one of the reasons for this preference.

JOYCE HOULDER

Joy is fond of all sports and has been a member of the field hockey and archery teams. She has served also on the Senior Play Committee and the Lookout Staff. After high school, Joyce hopes to become a legal secretary. During the time she has worked on the Lookout Staff, she proved to be a willing and efficient worker, well qualified to go into exacting work. Lucky will be the attorney who has Joyce for his secretary.

ELIZABETH MAY HOWARD

Is Betty happy? Could anyone not see at a moment's glance that she is? Her friendly smile and manner serve as passports which we are sure could take her around the world. She loves caring for dogs. Lucky animals! An expert at roller-skating and dancing, she has participated also in many of our school activities such as softball and basketball. She worked hard on the Class Prophecy Committee. Some of her drawings and cartoons are in this book, for you see, she was on the Class Art Staff. We know that you will make us proud of you, Betty!

JANET HUBBARD

Janet lives by the rule, "Silence is golden." Her gentleness and kindness makes her a credit to the class. Jan is a true friend, willing and generous. She served on the gift committee and the Make-up Committee for the Senior Play, The Ghost Train. Janet enjoys bowling and likes to dance. At present she has ambition to become a medical secretary.

LENA IOSUA

A sense of humor and a friendly disposition are prominent characteristics of Lena. In her four years at Wakefield High, she has made many friends. Her jovial manner is always present to cheer us up on an otherwise gloomy day. In her sophomore year, she was an active member of the Chorus. Among her many hobbies are dancing and horseback riding, in both of which she excels. At present she is working for a desirable secretarial position.

ELSIE DOROTHY JOHNSON

Elsie is one of our outstanding students. Brilliant and modest, she does any job well. Her services were welcome on the Class Gift Committee and the Senior Play Wardrobe Committee. By participation in basketball, badminton, and bowling, she has shown her versatility in sports. Business school is her destination after high school. Fortunate indeed will be the office that receives Elsie's sweetness, cooperation, and efficiency.

FRANK WALTER JOHNSON, JR.

Bud is the boy that you always see with a smile on his face. His chief activity has been the Rifle Club of which he has been an active member for the past three years. He is now Vice President of this energetic group. Guns, camping, and hunting constitute his main interests. He wants to go to college next year and is striving for Amherst.

HARRY STEN JOHNSON

Harry is one of those dependable boys without whose presence a class could not function. Although he has not played in many of the school's sports, he has been a loyal rooter at the games. To a few of us he is known as "Swede." Throughout his four years of high school Harry has participated in various activities such as the following: freshman and sophomore basketball, a member of the Sophomore Hop Committee, Co-Chairman of the Stage Crew for the Senior Play, and last of all, he was on the Classbook Staff. Although Harry was not on the baseball team, he excels in this sport, his hobby. Next September will find him in Bentley School of Accounting.

ENID LOUISE KALER

"Gabby" is full of laughter and fun, and always the center of gay repartee. She is a great sports enthusiast who never misses a school game in any sport. She plans to attend the University of Massachusetts, where she will study journalism. Enid joined the Horseback Riding Club during her first year. As a senior she was the Sports Editor of the Lookout and was on the Senior Play Decorating Committee. We know Enid will be a good journalist because of the excellent work she has done on the sports column in the Lookout.

THOMAS KENNEY

Tommy, who comes from Lynnfield, is well known for his happy, carefree manner. During his years at Wakefield High he has been a member of the Ski Club, has served on the Property Committee of the Senior Play, and has worked hard on the Business Staff of the Classbook. Tom has played many sports in his spare time. His favorite game is hockey which he has played for several years. Next to hockey, there is nothing he likes better than to pitch a good baseball game. When he leaves Wakefield High School, he is going to enter the medical profession.

CLAIRE ELAINE KIERSTEAD

Friendliness! That's Claire—beloved by all. To know her is to like her. She certainly will fill the qualifications of being a hostess or a receptionist as she plans to be in the future. Claire has taken part in numerous sports as well as in social affairs. She excelled in bowling, basketball, field hockey, golf, archery, and tennis—plus helping out in the office and belonging to Inter Nos and Chorus. She says her hobbies are dancing and going on long trips. We know one trip that she is sure to take—the express train to success.

JANET LOIS KING

Jay is one of the most popular members of our class, as a look at her school activities shows. In her freshman year she belonged to the Glee Club. In her third and fourth years she has been a member of the Lookout Staff. For three terms she has served faithfully on the Student Council, and in this last year has officiated as secretary. In her Senior year she was elected Homeroom President, and worked on the Make-Up Committee of the Senior Play and on the Senior Prom Committee. Her plans for the future call for additional training in art.

JANICE AUDREY KIRK

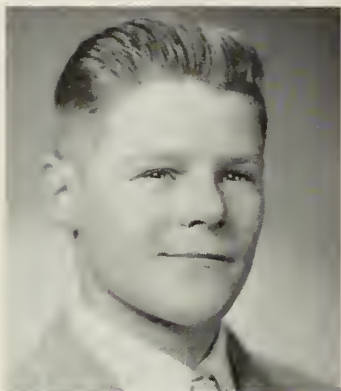

This easy-going gal, although somewhat diffident, is a friend of all in Wakefield High School. During her high school years Janice participated in many sports, among them bowling, field hockey, and basketball. She continued in the Inter Nos Club through her second and third years, at the same time serving on the Lookout Staff. She was a member of the following committees: Inter Nos Tea Committee, Sophomore Hop Committee, and The Property Committee for the Senior Play. Although she is undecided as to her future career, her loyalty and steadfastness will make her a willing worker in whatever she decides.

HELENE CLAIRE KOUBE

"Cal," as she is known throughout the school, has been a leader here. She has been adviser of the Inter Nos Club and Grooming Club, a member of the Student Council in her junior year, an active member of the sophomore and junior bowling teams, and has worked on the Lookout for the past three years, serving now as Co-Editor. Her special feature on the school paper is the first read by the students because of its sagacity and novel jokes. Despite her popularity and fashionable appearance, she has remained unaffected and friendly. And her record collection is really something to hear! After graduation she hopes to attend a junior college and eventually enter radio or magazine writing.

GEORGE JOHN KULACZ

Everyone who knows George appreciates his good nature. But do not let his quiet manner fool you, for George is always ready for fun and a practical joke or two. He has shown his ability to cooperate by his excellent work as a member of the Senior Play Property Committee. As a student George has been a consistent Honor Roll pupil, and, regardless of what he may plan for the future, we are sure that he will be a leader in civic affairs.

WILBURY LaCOMBE

Although Bill has not been long in Wakefield High School, he has impressed us. This handsome fellow with the ready smile has carved his own niche in the hearts of his fellow classmates. At Lynn English he was a member of the band and the art club. Being so talented a drummer and artist, it is a wonder he is not torn between the two. But Bill plans to attend an art school, that is, if he doesn't join the Navy. Anyway, there is smooth sailing ahead for this "young salt."

ARLENE ELIZABETH LAMPREY

Friendly and jovial, Arlene is everybody's friend. Her willingness to help others proves this. Demonstrating her school spirit by her innumerable activities, Arlene is always in the limelight. She has been a faithful, ardent member of Inter Nos for four years, the third year of which she was Treasurer. Her other activities include Lookout, Student Council, Senior Play Executive Committee, Senior Play Usher, and Square Dance Committee. Knitting and dancing are her favorite hobbies. We know that, because of her fondness for people, Arlene will be outstanding in her chosen career as an airline reservationist.

MARJORIE LOUISE LANDRY

Midge's charm, personality, and friendliness are responsible for her popularity. Her junior year found her serving long and arduously on the Prom Committee. As a cheerleader in her Senior year, Marjorie supported her school teams wholeheartedly. She was also an usher at the Senior Play The Ghost Train. Membership on various committees and service as homeroom manager further occupied her time. Swimming and dancing are her favorite hobbies. She will enter the business world in September.

WILLIAM JAMES LARKIN

Bill is known to everyone for his excellent skiing ability. Although skiing is his favorite sport, he also excels in swimming, sailing, football, baseball, golf, and tennis. Because of his lovable personality, he wins friends daily. He has served on the Junior Prom Committee and has been one of the most ardent supporters of the Ski Club. This year as Co-chairman of the Senior Play Committee he worked very diligently to make our play a success. After graduation, Bill will study engineering at Cornell University. We know that he will be a success there and wherever he may go.

FERNE MARY LAYTON

At first glance at this girl you might wonder whether you were in Wakefield High School or in a beauty contest. Yes, indeed, Ferne surely is classified as one of the best looking members of her class. But she has other achievements. She was an enthusiastic supporter of our Editorial Staff of our Classbook plus giving much time to the Senior Play Party and Ushers and Candy Committee. Because of her diligence in these tasks, we know that she will become an able dietician. Many persons will eat spinach and drink milk gladly when they find out who supervised their diets. Can you honestly blame them?

CATHERINE MARIE LEBLANC

Our Catherine has distinguished herself throughout her four years of high school by her musical ability. In her freshman year she sang in the Glee Club; she proved herself an able accompanist with the Chorus for two years, and for the Glee Club her junior year. This year Cathy had the added honor of playing the piano in the school orchestra. She has also participated in basketball, field hockey, bowling, softball, golf, and the Ski Club; and this year, in addition, she has been an invaluable secretary on the Classbook Staff. She will enter Simmons College to train as a public health nurse. Her consideration for others and her high scholastic record assure us that she has chosen wisely.

JOHN LEBLANC

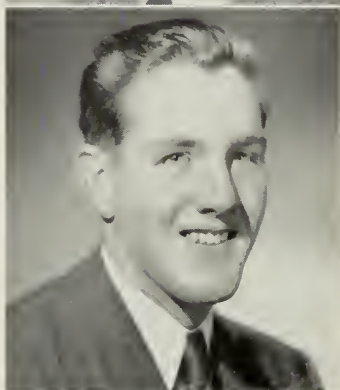

Johnnie is usually found in the midst of a lively baseball discussion. He has proved his ability to play baseball on the Y. M. C. A. team. He is rather quiet, but really says something when he speaks. If you don't know him, you're missing a grand friend who will be serving in the U. S. Army in June.

ROY JAMES LEFAVOUR, JR.

Roy has served his class faithfully as president for three years. His vigor and ability as co-captain of our football and basketball teams have changed many potential defeats into victories. Besides his athletic ability, he has served on the Student Council and the Lookout Staff. His popularity is largely due to his sincerity and unselfishness. We predict a promising career for him.

ARTHUR LOUBRIS

A radiant personality and warm, genuine friendliness are the impressions one receives when talking with Art Loubris. His sincerity makes him one of the most popular boys in school. He was appointed to serve on the Prom Committee during his junior year, where he earned the reputation of being a hard-worker and a completely dependable fellow. As a member of the Senior Play Stage Crew he won acclaim for his efficiency. As soon as he graduates from Wakefield High he plans to enroll in the Forestry Course at the University of Maine.

JOSEPH KEVIN LOUGHLIN

Usually found in the midst of all the fun, Joe is one of the best-natured boys at W. H. S. No matter how dark the outlook may be, he is always ready with a smile. His wit and genial personality endear him to his admirers. His outstanding talent is his willingness to work, for he is a fellow that is always ready to lend a hand. Although Joe is uncertain about his future plans, we are sure that he will be a success in any field he may choose.

FRANK LUCIANO

Lucian is one of the versatile members of our class. He is interested in all sports, but he particularly enjoys football. During his four years at Wakefield High, he has been an active member of the football squad. When not participating in team sports, Frank likes to hunt. He also was an industrious member of the Stage Crew for the Senior Play. Frank is looking forward to a career as a construction engineer.

JEAN LEE MACDONALD

Vivacious Jeannie is a sure cure for the blues. But do not let fun-loving Jeannie fool you, for she is really a capable and conscientious worker. In her freshman year she sang in the Glee Club, and she served on the Sophomore Hop Committee. Her efforts on the Usher Committee of the Senior Play were appreciated. She plans to continue working for the Telephone Company, and her cheery "hello," along with her friendly and courteous attitude will certainly prove a great factor in her success.

JEAN MARGUERITE MacGREGOR

To know Jeannie is to love her. Her unassuming manner has endeared her to her many friends. Those who are more intimately acquainted with her know her as a witty and lively personality, having an ever ready collection of humorous anecdotes. She has been active in extra-curricular groups, including Glee Club and Inter Nos, and has served on the Class Prophecy Committee and Editorial Staff of the Class-book. She was also an engaging usher at the Senior Play. Her understanding will assure her of success in her chosen profession, nursing. She expects to enter Melrose Hospital as a trainee in September.

BARBARA MACKENZIE

A sincere girl with a winsome smile describes Barbara. Because of her pleasant disposition, she is a welcome member in any class. As an ardent worker on the Decorating Committee for the Senior Play, she showed her ingenuity and good taste in carrying out the theme. She has been an active member of the Shorthand Club also. Her favorite sports are skating and swimming. At present she hopes to be a dental hygienist and to help relieve the shortage in a medical field.

MARION LOIS MACKENZIE

One of our most fashionable classmates, Marion has been the leader with novel ideas in clothes. Even though her reticent manner may give an erroneous first impression, her close friends know her as a talkative person. Many new students are indebted to Marion for her amicable reception and introductions to new friends. She has found time to be one of the pert and peppy majorettes at the games this year, in addition to serving on the class Color Committee and the Make-Up Committee of the Senior Play. More of an athlete than she appears, Marion spends every spare moment in the summer in canoeing and in swimming. As a stylist she will be tops at the Modern School of Fashion Design.

MARGARET MacQUARRIE

Margaret seems to fit in anywhere. She has many friends and always has something to do. Mac is a member of Inter Nos, Sports Club, and Spanish Club. Her sporting interests are found in badminton, bowling, basketball, and golf. She has also worked on the Senior Play Publicity Committee. She numbers among her pastimes piano playing. At present her ambition is to become a dental hygienist.

PRISCILLA ANN MAHER

Priscilla, the girl with the beautiful auburn hair, is much admired. Undoubtedly she has a host of friends because of her excellent sense of humor and her willing cooperation. Her sports activities include basketball, golf, and softball. She has been a member of the Wardrobe Committee for the Senior Play, of the Inter Nos Club in her second year, and of the Shorthand Club in her third year. "Scilla" plans to attend a business school in September.

RITA MAHER

Rita is the girl with the flashing smile and the friendly spirit. We can usually find Rita in the midst of laughter and chatter. Her lovable personality and her droll wit have enlivened many an otherwise dull hour for her friends. As a hard worker and a good student, Rita will make some executive an excellent stenographer

BARBARA MAY MALONSON

Petite Barbara is most easily recognized by her vivacious smile. While there is mischief, Barb is sure to be found. This classmate has been popular with both girls and boys throughout her four years at Wakefield High School. Humor and understanding are some of the chief qualities of her radiant personality. She has participated in softball and bowling, she has supported the athletic contests, and she sold much candy at the Senior Play. Among her accomplishments are swimming, skating, and dancing. The Massachusetts School of Art will have a worthy student in Barbara.

MILDRED MARA

A newcomer this year from Melrose High School, Mildred has not taken long to acquire many friends. To say that she is charming, pretty and friendly is to mention only a few of Millie's merits. An excellent swimmer, she is "that way" about sports and dancing alike. We needn't worry about Millie's future, for she has all the essentials for success whether in the domestic or business world.

JEANNE ROSE MAURIELLO

This girl with a sparkle in her eye is a bundle of energy. She has served on the Senior Play Publicity Committee and the Menu Committee. Through Oracle Intelligence, we see that her pet diversion is dancing. An ambitious lass, she plans to become a Certified Public Accountant by continuing her education at Bentley's School of Accounting. Jeanne will surely bring smiles and good humor to her future associates.

EVANGELINE McCABE

"Vangie," one of the spark plugs and gayest persons of our class, will certainly be a success wherever she chooses to go. She has taken an interest in many extra-curricular activities, as the following show: she played basketball when a freshman, belonged to the Inter-Nos, and the bowling team her sophomore year, and in her Senior year she had a leading part in the Senior Play. We certainly won't forget her portrayal of "Julia Price" in The Ghost Train. Best of luck to a swell girl.

BARBARA McCAIG

Barb is one of the most amiable girls in her class and also one of the best liked. She has been active in Inter Nos and in the Girls' Glee Club. Besides these activities, she has found time to work in the office, to be an understudy in the Senior Play, and to act as Vice-President of the Shorthand Club. She will enter a professional business school in September. In whatever walk of life she may follow, we extend our sincerest wishes for a full and happy career.

MARY THERESE MCCARTHY

Mary, or "Mac" as she is known to everyone, is a fun-loving girl. In any group of which she is a member, her witty chatter is a constant source of entertainment. During her high-school years she has been interested in all activities, particularly bowling. Her extra-curricular hobbies are dancing and swimming. Mary plans to be a receptionist in the near future and we believe that her pleasant manner and friendly smile will be effective in that capacity.

MILEEN MCGEE

Mac is a girl who is to be greatly admired. While the rest of us froze and suffered with colds, she enjoyed the warm Florida sunshine. However, she did find time to become one of our peppiest cheerleaders before leaving to spend the winter months in sunny Florida. She is fond of dancing and all sports, although she has not had time to participate in many extra-curricular activities. She has earned many friends, all of whom join in wishing her a happy and successful future.

ROBERT McWHINNIE

A loyal member of our class is Bob. Three out of his four years at Wakefield High he has participated in football. His readiness for a good time is always a source of delight to his classmates. His favorite pastimes are hunting and fishing. After graduation he plans to join the Army Air Force, where his ability to get along with others and to utilize new opportunities will help him immeasurably.

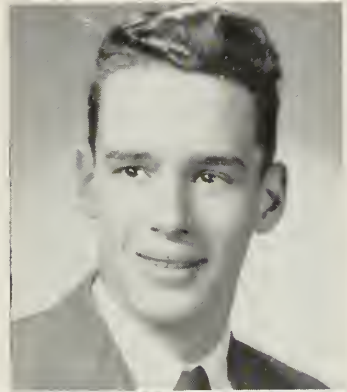

VIRGINIA GLADYS MELANSON

No introduction is needed for Ginna. Her appealing smile and willingness to help others have made her one of our outstanding girls. Her dependability is clearly shown in the capable way she officiated as treasurer of the Tri-Hi-Y and as a member of the Inter Nos. She has been an active member in such sports as basketball and bowling. She also added to the success of the Senior Play by working on the Property Committee. After graduation she plans to become a medical secretary. Lucky doctor!

LEONARD RAYMOND MEUSE

Len is, without doubt, one of the best-liked members of the Senior Class. He is always ready with a friendly greeting and a cheery word. He has participated in our intramural sports, and is a fine athlete. We feel certain that he will be a great success in the U. S. Navy.

MADELINE MEUSE

Madeline is a quiet and unassuming girl. These qualities have made her a loyal and considerate friend to many of her classmates. Madeline has always cooperated fully with teachers and students alike. She has been a diligent member of the Shorthand Club. Madeline's hobbies are free-hand drawing and skating. She plans to become a stenographer or a typist. Madeline's honesty and sincerity will insure success.

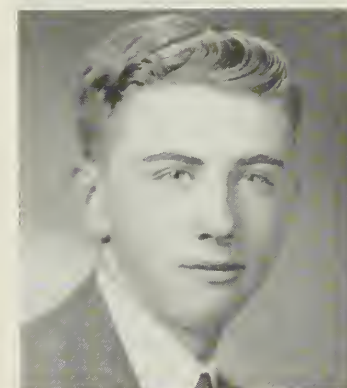

JOYCE VIRGINIA MILLER

Joyce is easily recognized by her pleasant smile and sparkling personality. She is well liked by her many friends and her witty remarks are always a source of amusement. She has been an active member of our class and of the Classbook Editorial Staff, Shorthand Club, and Sports Club. Basketball, badminton and bowling are a few of the many sports in which she took part. Her ambition is to be a secretary, and her many desirable qualities in that field will make her success inevitable.

WILLIAM ALBERT MILLER, JR.

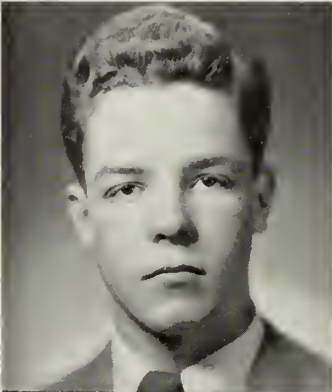

Bill is an energetic fellow who is known by his classmates for his deep interest in sports. That baseball is his favorite is revealed by his active participation in that sport for three years. He also played on the Homeroom Basketball Team in his Junior and Senior years. Besides serving on the Classbook Business Staff, he has worked expertly on the Lighting and Sound Committee for the Senior Play. His love for sports will continue through Tufts College, where he intends to study electrical engineering.

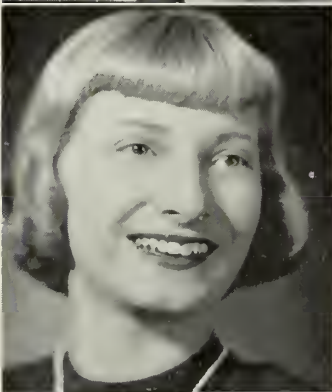

LORRAINE MARION MILLETT

If you see a friendly smile and a pair of twinkling hazel eyes, you have probably just passed Lorraine. She has a friendliness that captivates and a cordiality that puts one at ease. She is much interested in the arrangement of hair and plans to enter Wilfred Academy where she will train to become a professional beautician. Her natural talent on the Senior Play Make-Up Committee was appreciated. Membership in the Glee Club, as well as her participation in basketball and softball, are evidence of other interests. As a valued member of the Prophecy Committee she supplied amusing write-ups for all.

LEO MILOTTE

Brockton's loss was Wakefield's gain when Leo Milotte transferred to Wakefield High for his Senior year. Although he has only been at our school for four months, he has already established himself as an important member of the Forty-Niners. His Senior homeroom elected him as one of their representatives on the most important Class Photographer Committee. Leo's interests outside of school are centered in the great out-of doors. Fishing, hunting, and boating occupy whatever spare time he has left. He also holds a part-time job as a shoe salesman in a Lynn department store. This work interests him so much that he plans to make salesmanship his vocation after graduation. We feel sure that Leo will make as much of a success of his life as he has of his brief career at Wakefield.

PATRICIA FRANCES MORICO

An attractive and versatile member of our class is Patti. Her four years at Wakefield High have been busy, for she has been Co-Editor of the Lookout, advisor to the Good Grooming Club, and a member of the Shorthand and Inter-Nos Clubs. Her hobbies include collecting records and swimming. For the past year Patti has been a model for Filene's Hi-School Fashion Board, and hopes to further her career of modeling by attending the Barbizon School of Modeling.

JANET MARIE MORIN

Everyone will recognize this popular majorette. Her winning smile and congeniality will enable her to go far in her chosen career as a professional hairdresser. Most of her spare time is spent on her photograph album or her records. She helped to make the Senior Play a success by working on the Usher and Candy Committee. Among her favorite sports are bowling, skating, and swimming. Her sincerity as a friend and her genuine interest in others will bring happiness to her.

JOHN MORRIS

Jack is a quiet boy with a shy smile. During his high school days he has been a loyal follower of baseball and golf. As a member of the Lighting and Sound Committee, he ably assisted in the production of the Senior Play. Although Jack's plans for the future are indefinite, we know that he will give his best effort wherever he is.

LORRAINE MARIE MUSE

Lorraine, or "Mouse," as her friends call her, is a grand person. Her constant good nature, ready wit, and engaging smile endear her to all. Speaking of smiles, we'll never forget those toothless four weeks that Lorraine went about the halls with a merry hello for everyone. (You know what we mean, Lorraine.) Any office will be getting an excellent worker in Lorraine.

CHARLOTTE LUCILLE NELSON

In "Charley," as she is called by her friends, we have a sweet and intelligent girl. She has been a faithful member of the Inter Nos for three years. In her Senior year she was elected co-chairman of the Decorating Committee of the Senior Play and also was a member of the Spanish Club. She has displayed her interest in sports by participating in bowling and in soft ball. After graduation she plans to take the home economics course at the University of Massachusetts. Her interest in this field insures her an excellent position.

DOROTHY RUTH NUTILE

Attractive and vivacious Dottie ranks highly as a girl everybody likes. As a quick-stepping majorette and the first girl to lead Wakefield High's Band, she has made her classmates proud of her. During her junior year, she was elected Homeroom Manager and served on the Junior Prom Committee. She worked on the Majorette Barn Dance Committee and assisted as a charming usher on the Senior Play Usher and Candy Committee. In addition to being a talented tap dancer, she also enjoys skating and ballroom dancing and considers them her favorite hobbies. After graduation Dorothy plans to become an accountant.

WILLIAM JOSEPH ORNE

Everyone likes Billie because of his ready grin and sparkling personality. He was on the baseball squad in his sophomore year and a member of the Senior Play Cast in his last year. Bill likes to play hockey in his spare time, and he also likes to work with electricity. He will study further at Burdett and eventually become a Certified Public Accountant.

BEVERLY ANN PACKARD

Wherever there is gaiety and excitement, you are sure to find Bev. If she discovers you in a discouraged mood, she will leave you full of merriment. She is interested in all sports and never misses a baseball game. Beverly would like to enter the University of Massachusetts or Katharine Gibbs School. She served as homeroom president and played softball her first year. In her sophomore year she played basketball and softball. On the Junior Prom Committee and on the Senior Play Decorating Committee, she was a cooperative worker. As a member of the Sports Club and the Class History Committee her Senior year, she was of invaluable assistance.

ROBERT CONRAD PAIVA

Besides being a top-ranking athlete and sports enthusiast, Bob is a friendly lad who has a pleasant smile for all. His jovial humor and quick wit spell popularity. During his years on the football team, he earned great admiration from his classmates for his whole-hearted cooperation as a tough and fighting warrior. His outside hobby, which is participating in all sports, takes up a great deal of his time. After graduation he plans to attend a preparatory school.

JEAN LORRAINE PALMERINO

Here is a girl whose lovable personality, pleasant smile, and reliability have made her outstanding. She has taken an extensive interest in her classmates and their activities. In her sophomore year she was a loyal member of the Chorus and the Bowling Club. She has shown her capability by serving on the Senior Play Decorating Committee and the Classbook Staff. Among her hobbies, she lists skating, playing the piano, drawing, and dancing. After graduation "Laurie" plans to enter either the accounting or the secretarial field. As an efficient typist and an honor student, she will have no difficulty in whatever vocation she chooses.

JOSEPH PALUMBO

After school hours, Joe is one of the bright young clerks in a popular store. He is an ardent baseball fan and is interested particularly in the Major Leagues. In his Senior Year Joe was interested in producing the Class Play. As a member of the Lighting and Sound Committee, he helped to make the play a success. After serving in the United States Army, he plans to go into the produce business. We know he will carry on in his usual efficient manner.

GRACE LORRAINE PASTORELLO

Grace finds life good and meets problems with a smile. She was an active Inter Nos member in her freshman year. In her sophomore year she played on the girls' softball team. She has also served on the Basketball Committee of the Sports Club, on the Senior Play Decorating Committee, and on the Classbook Business Staff in her Senior year. For diversion she plays the piano and the accordion. She likes ice skating best of all. Her future work on hair style should prove interesting.

DOROTHY ROSE PERILLO

Dot's interests vary. She was on the basketball team and was a bowling enthusiast her freshman year and on the Senior Prom Decorating Committee her Senior year. Dot is very much interested in art. Her hobby, in which she excels, is drawing. Dot is less talkative than most teen-agers and has a pleasing disposition at all times. Because she likes people, she will be a successful worker in business.

BARBARA JEAN PERKINS

Barbie is an attractive blonde who has gained much popularity because of her sunny smile and friendly disposition. By her realistic portrayal of the newly-wed, Peggy Murdock, she played an important part in making our Senior Play, "The Ghost Train," a success. In her freshman year Barb belonged to the Glee Club and Auto Driving Class. In her junior year, she took part in badminton, golf and bowling, and in her Senior year she has been an active member of the Sports Club and the Editorial Staff of the Classbook. Incidentally, she loves fun, especially in the form of a movie, skiing, or swimming. Barb has not decided whether to develop her dramatic talents or enter the business field.

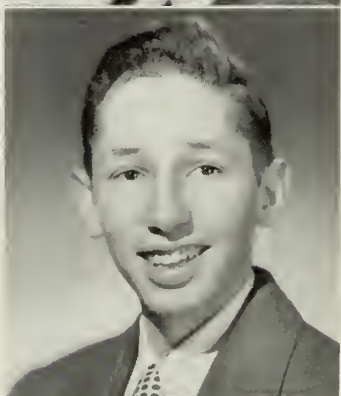

GEORGE HAWLEY PERRY

George is a rather quiet, musical, and a very steady chap to have around. For four years he has played consistent, hard football for Coach "Hacker" Walsh. He was a member of the School Band his first two years in school, but then left to play swing on a commercial basis in Bill Whitney's band. The band serenaded many dancers at Canteens and the like with their soft mellow music. Everyone appreciated George's work on the Junior Prom committee and as Co-Chairman of the Business Staff of the Classbook. He intends to enter Wilbraham Academy next year and from there continue his education in some engineering school.

ADELINE MARY PONTE

Quite the contrary to her nickname, "Iodine" is beloved by her acquaintances. Her quiet sense of humor and friendly smile fascinate us. Her liveliness is outstanding and her enthusiasm, contagious. Her interest in sports is shown by her excellent record on the bowling and the softball teams and by her enthusiasm in the Sports Club. She displayed her ambition for her future vocation in her junior year, when she became a member of the Shorthand Club. She has also served on the Senior Party Committee. After graduation, Adeline plans to enter secretary work.

FRED RAYMOND

Fred Raymond, better known as Francois, is one of our most carefree and fun-loving Seniors. Although he spends most of his time enjoying life, he can really make himself work when he wants to. In his Senior year, he was a detective in the play and a member of the Prophecy Committee. His personality makes him not only popular with his classmates but also with his teachers. Fred can usually be found enjoying his favorite sport which is billiards at the "academy." With four years of practice, he is hard to beat at the game. His goal is Boston University where he is bound to do well.

ALICE LARAINÉ RIED-FARN

Allie-Lou has been a dynamo of energy during her four high school years. She has been in the Inter Nos Club for the last three years, serving as president of the organization during her Senior year. For the past two years, she has worked industriously on the Sophomore Hop and Junior Prom Committees. As for her musical interests, she sang in the Glee Club during her freshman and sophomore years. Our class treasurer for the last three years, she has demonstrated her financial acumen. We predict a glorious future in the business world.

JAMES RIZZA

Friendly, diligent, and scholastically brilliant, Jimmy has won the respect of both students and teachers. He is known throughout Wakefield for his exceptional ability as a pianist. In school he has played for the Boys' Glee Club and for the Orchestra. Conscientious, Jimmy has been chosen for important duties in such positions as the Junior Prom Committee, Homeroom Manager, and Associate Editor of the Classbook. Although he is always busy, he never appears tired or impatient. He received the Harvard Book Club award in his Junior year. Some conservatory of music will gain an ideal student; and the musical profession, a piano teacher of the highest quality.

BARBARA JEAN ROACH

Barb's vivacity and rich humor have proved her to be a popular student. Barb and her many friends constitute a jovial group. She plans to do secretarial work after school. She has been a member of Inter Nos in her sophomore year, and of the Shorthand Club her third year. In the Senior year Barb was a Senior Play Usher and was on the Classbook Editorial Staff. Any employer will be glad to have Barb for a secretary.

AGNES MARGARET ROBBINS

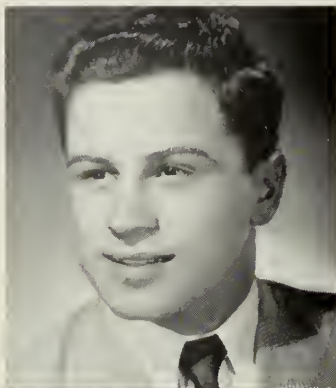

That petite, happy-go-lucky girl is none other than "Aggie" Robbins. Her striking personality and cheerful smile made many customers buy candy from her at the Senior Play, where she served as an usher. Her good sportsmanship was shown during her last year when she played basketball. Her hobbies are dancing, skating, basketball, and bowling. Shortly after graduation Agnes begins work as a secretary.

LENA JOAN ROBERTO

A soft-spoken girl of demure charm describes Lena to a "T." During her freshman year, Glee Club claimed her services. In her last year she helped on the Senior Play Make-up Committee. Even if her hobbies of dancing, skating, and bowling require much of her time, this neatly-dressed and well-mannered girl is never too busy for a friendly "hello." Lena, or as she prefers, Lee, is determined to become a secretary. In the fulfillment of this ambition she has our best wishes.

MICHAEL ROBERTO

"Mickie" is that five foot four, stocky, individual who, besides being one of the most popular fellows in the class, is perhaps the best natured. He played terrific football for four years and was co-captain his Senior year. In the newly formed Sports Club he served as president. Besides these activities he has been a member of the Student Council for two years, and this last year he led the council through a successful year as President. We know it's a foregone conclusion that he will do well in preparatory school.

CECIL MELVIN ROBERTS

Cecil is a tall, good-natured classmate whose hobbies include hunting, fishing, and chemistry. For the past two years he has been an active member and president of the Rifle Club. The fact that his name is constantly on the Honor Roll proves that he is one of our outstanding students. After graduation he plans to enter the Forestry Service where his intelligence and adaptability will be richly rewarded.

DONALD ROGERS

Don is a lively boy with a host of friends. His witty retorts and humorous sayings have made him tops among his classmates. Don enjoys swimming, sailing, and building model ships. His main interest is in driving and in repairing automobiles. Many an hour he spends tinkering with his model car. He plans to join the United States Navy and study mechanics.

LAWRENCE MATTHEW ROSS

One of Lynnfield's outstanding contributions to our class is Larry Ross. His popularity among fellow students became apparent when he was elected Homercom Manager during his sophomore year. In both his sophomore and junior years Larry was an important cog in the Wakefield football machine. His Senior home room entrusted him with the responsible job of president, and he handled this position as capably as he did his job on the Classbook Business Staff. Larry's outside interests are concentrated on sports. Baseball, tennis, and golf are among his favorites. Northeastern University is the fortunate college that will receive Larry's talents next fall.

PATRICIA ANN RYDER

Pat is one of the most athletic girls in our class. Not only does she enjoy playing a good game, but she also enjoys watching athletic contests. She has played basketball and softball for four years, at the same time participating in tennis, badminton, and field hockey. She is an ardent fan of varsity basketball, football, hockey, and baseball. Naturally she's a member of the Sports Club. In addition, she played her part for the Senior Play on the Wardrobe Committee. Patty plans to attend college for one year and then go to the Children's Hospital for the nursing course, eventually to become a child's nurse.

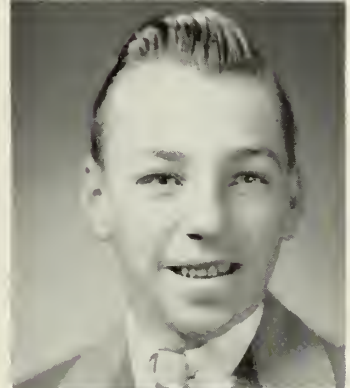

GLORIA MAE SAMPSON

Glo came to us from Saugus High School in her senior year. Wakefield High soon sat up and took notice. She belonged to Inter Nos, worked on the Senior Play Usher and Candy Committee, on the Graduation Decoration Committee, and served as a library assistant. But these duties gave Wakefield High only a glimpse of this modest dynamo. Saugus will remember her as a member of the Ski Club, the basketball team, the Junior Prom Committee, and as secretary of her class in her junior year. Her hobby is that popular one stamp collecting.

WILLIAM SCHACHT

As the football team charges on the gridiron in September, and the baseball squad warms up in the spring, Bill is there as manager to see that all the equipment is in its place and that the players have all necessary supplies. With these squads during his stay at Wakefield High, Bill has been willing to work hard and has been rewarded by praise from the coaches and the warm friendship of all his fellow students. We predict that he will become an executive in the business world, where his interests lie.

JAMES MILTON SCOTT

One never hears too much from Jimmy, but this lad certainly does his share of work. For two years, he has held office in the Hi-Y Club, and during the two previous years, he has been a player in the Band. An amiable fellow, he is never too busy to help anyone. A sport enthusiast, Jimmy appears to have a liking for the rugged life, so he is planning to join the Army. We're all rooting for you, Jimmy.

ROBERTA ANN SCRIBNER

Bobby, a comparatively meek girl, is well known to all of us for her artistic ability. She has been a member of the Glee Club, has participated in softball and bowling, and was one of the attractive ushers at the Senior Play. She plans to enter art school, and in view of her talent, she has a promising career ahead.

ROY SERRENTINO

A likable, good-natured, and dependable member of our class is Roy. Those who have not acquainted themselves with him have missed a faithful friend. He likes to astound his friends by his sharp socks and his colorful ties. During his spare moments, Roy gets much pleasure in playing the piano, a hobby at which he excels. Because of his excellent portrayal of "Jackson" in the Senior Play, he plans to enter Leland Powers School of Radio and Theater. We shall watch for your performance, Roy in the near future.

MARY SHAW

Mary has the desirable quality of being able to listen attentively to others, an accomplishment which should aid her in her desire to become a nurse. After graduation she plans to attend Mount Auburn Hospital School of Nursing where we are sure she will be successful. At Wakefield High she belonged to the Inter Nos Club and participated in such sports as basketball, bowling, and archery, in which she was admired for her good sportsmanship.

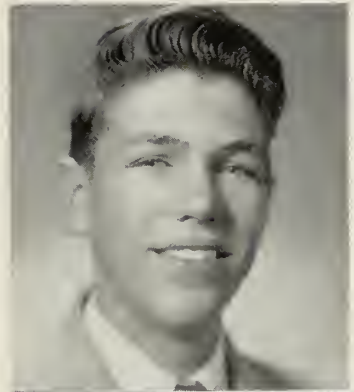

CLARE SHELDON

To learn your knits and purls go see Clare. Knitting is one of the high spots in her life along with drawing. She's good too! In her junior and senior years, she was an active member of Inter Nos. This girl with the sunny disposition also served on the Senior Play Wardrobe Committee. A cheerful, happy person, Clare is sure to be an asset to whatever profession she chooses.

PETER SHUMWAY

Pete, a Lynnfield boy, seems rather quiet, but his numerous buddies all are conscious of his dry wit and keen sense of humor. Out of doors, Pete excels in skiing, hunting, and swimming. A remarkable skier, he was elected Vice President of the Ski Club his junior year and President his last year. Well liked by his teachers as well as his classmates, Pete has served on the Class Motto Committee, Senior Play Property Committee, and the Classbook Editorial Staff. He was also elected manager of his Home Room his Senior Year. We wish him success at the University of Wisconsin, where he plans to study forestry.

FREDERICK RALPH SIAS, JR.

Well known for his artistic ability, Tommy is a distinguished class member. As an efficient worker on the Classbook Art Staff, he has contributed an excellent display of his drawings. He has been an active member of the Rifle Club, the Ski Club, and the Lookout Staff. That he has a wide range of hobbies is proved by his interest in radio, photography, stamp collecting, skiing and swimming. Tommy plans to study electrical engineering at the University of Florida, where we predict a brilliant future for one who deserves recognition.

MARILYN SMALLWOOD

The courteous manner Mikki has for everyone makes one want to know her better. Her neat, dignified appearance makes it a pleasure to call her a classmate. At first she seems serious and reserved, but her friends find her fun-loving and sincere. Her favorite pastimes are swimming, dancing, and bowling--she is very fond of the last-named. Her ability to meet any situation will make her a desirable office worker.

MARJORIE LEE SMART

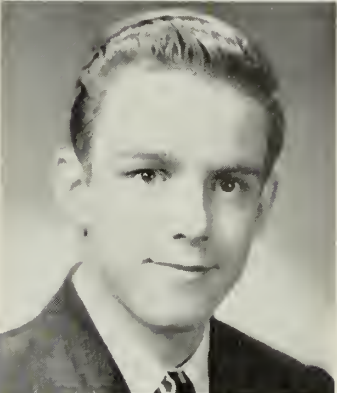

Lee is one of our talented band members, who contributed much towards making it one of the best. During her first years she sang in the Glee Club. Her fine soprano voice will certainly be missed by her successors. Lee has also been an active reporter for the Lookout. Her interesting columns are enjoyed by all. Perhaps her outstanding performance as "Elsie Winthrop" in the Senior Play is one of our most vivid memories. Both the Ski Club and the Classbook have profited by her ability. Naturally, with her fine scholastic record, Lee has college as her goal.

JOAN MARCIA SOMERS

What pep! What an athlete! That's Joey Somers. She played basketball her second and fourth years, and home room basketball her third and fourth years. As though that weren't enough, she also played badminton besides belonging to the Inter Nos and Glee Club for three years each. We must note also that she served faithfully on the Senior Play Publicity Committee and the Senior Classbook Business Staff. When she finds time between these activities she likes to go swimming, training herself for the day when she will be an Olympic swimming star undoubtedly. For this girl, who intends to do secretarial work, we predict a future as sparkling as her personality.

PHILIP ANDREW SOUSA

Phil, one of our outstanding hockey players for four years, has become a valuable member of the team. Although he seems to be easy going, his academic record shows that he has been a very good student. His geniality is responsible for his many offices: Home Room President, Home Room Manager, Chairman of the Hockey Committee, membership in the Glee Club, and on the Junior Prom Committee. Because of his great love for the out-of-doors, many an early morning has found him tramping the fields with a gun or quietly casting out over a trout stream. We shall miss you, Phil.

ELAINE WELLS STANLEY

Elaine has won many friends during her high school days. As a gay "Senorita" she is the president of the Spanish Club. She has also taken part in bowling, Glee Club, Chorus, Look-out, and Sports Club. In her last year she served on the Senior Play Committee, the Senior Party Committee, and the Classbook Editorial Staff. Her hobby is singing, as it should be with her clear, lovely voice. She hopes to enroll in the Airline Secretarial Course at Kathleen Dell School.

BARBARA ANN ST. PIERRE

We can readily see why "Bobbie" has chosen to attend the Modern School of Fashion and Design for she never seems to tire of creating new ideas in the latest fashions. Her able work as president of the Shorthand Club and her cooperation on the Decorating Committee of the Senior Play have proved her ability to get along with people. Her ability to converse with others and her unselfish attitude toward all will aid her wherever she goes.

CHARLES STEPHENS, JR.

What Charlie lacks in stature he makes up for in spirit. He is one of those boys who are certain to be at the center of any excitement. As a sportsman, he has been active in the Ski Club and Intramural Basketball. In the classrooms his sparkling sallies brighten even the dulllest day. He is an avid reader and a keen judge of people. We predict new and great heights for Charlie.

FRANCIS SULLIVAN

Sully has an inimitable fun-loving spirit that makes his store of friends large and enemies nil. Anyone looking for him usually will discover him involved with his buddies in a discussion on the latest Ford car or the oldest one. As far as sports are concerned, he favors basketball since he played on his home room basketball team in his junior and senior years. Too, he enjoys swimming. All his friends know that Sully will make good at college and ultimately the Air Force.

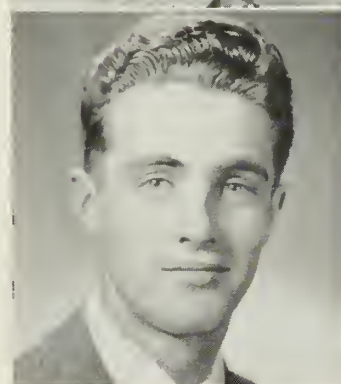

CLAIRE MARIE SURETTE

Petite, dark-haired Claire, a cheerful lassie who is known by her engaging smile and delightful personality, is sure to be an efficient secretary. We shall always remember her as "Peggy" in our Senior Play. Among the activities which have kept Claire busy are the Sports Club, the Inter Nos Club, and the Shorthand Club. Her many hobbies are skating, tennis, and swimming. We know that with her sincerity and charm, she will find many pleasures in the future.

ROBERT NEWTON SURRETTE

Skip, as his classmates call him, is that popular easy-going boy who plays superb hockey. His sincerity and congenial manner won him the position of Homeroom president in his sophomore year. In his Senior year, he served on the Senior Play Committee. During his leisure time he plays baseball and hunts. He plans to enter a trade school but is still undetermined about his course. We wish him only happiness in his venture.

BARBARA JOAN SWALLOW

Barb is definitely one of our most athletic girls. She is noted for her agility in sports, and, during her four years in Wakefield High, she has taken part in field hockey, basketball, softball, badminton, and tennis. This year, besides being an Usher at the Senior Play, she was elected chairman of Girls' Sports activities in association with the Sports Club. She is going to study nursing education.

PRISCILLA JEAN SWETT

Witty is the word for our Tilly. Wherever there is excitement and fun, Priscilla can be found. She came to us from Lynn English, and in her two years here, she has been active on the Senior Play Candy Committee, Senior Play Usher Committee, Class Banquet Committee, Classbook Art Staff, and Inter Nos. Ice skating, seeing good movies, listening to good jokes, and eating Toll House cookies made by a certain person are among her favorite pastimes. We know that with her ability to mingle with others this lass from Lynnfield will be a popular member of the United States Waves when she enlists in the fall.

MARY ANN TESTA

A jovial personality and a friendly glance—these are the chief characteristics of our "Shorty." Always ready and willing to help, she has shown her splendid cooperation on the Usher and Candy Committee for the Senior Play. A few of her many hobbies include swimming, dancing, and skiing. She plans to become an air-line hostess, and we know that with her vivacity and gracious manner, success will always shine brightly on her pathway.

LESLIE TODD

During his high school career, "Skip" has been a sports enthusiast. He has supported his team faithfully by playing with the baseball squad and his homeroom basketball team. His favorite pastime is another sport—sailing. He has shown his other school interests by being a loyal member of the Glee Club and by serving efficiently on the Classbook Business Staff. He plans to enter the field of electric refrigeration. Will you fix our old box, Skip?

THOMAS TUPPER

"Tup" is, without doubt, one of the most genial and care-free fellows in our class. Tom appreciates a good joke and his ludicrous chuckle is really worth the price of admission to any show. He served faithfully on the Stage Crew Committee for the Senior Play and for the Senior Party. He hopes to major in commerce next year. Wherever you are, Tom, your many friends at W. H. S. will be thinking of you and wishing you the best of luck.

SHIRLEY ANN URQUHART

The next time you pick up your telephone and hear "Number please," it might be Shirley, that pretty telephone operator in Lynnfield Center. Popular with boys and girls alike, this classmate has been a great help as a member of the Class Motto Committee, the Classbook Business Staff, and as a Senior Play Usher. She recognizes the finer things in life, and if she can see a good movie, a football, a hockey, or a basketball game, or just enjoy a friendly chat with her many friends, she is happy. Shirley plans to continue with her work as a cheerful telephone operator in her beloved home town.

DONALD VAN WAGNER

Donald's specialties are stamp collecting and record collecting. The latter hobby may be his reason for being a member of the Glee Club his freshman and sophomore years, and in the orchestra his second and third years. These activities also show us that Donald is a lover of music. "Homer," as we know him best, has participated in various other activities such as player in the Band his Senior year and being on the Publicity Committee for the Senior Play. He was also chosen to be on the Dinner and Motto Committee in his fourth year. He plans to enter the Navy, after which he will attend a business school.

JOHN VENTURA

Johnny can always be found in a group discussing military weapons or affairs. His enthusiasm and fondness for practical jokes receive a ready response from his classmates. He is a member of the Rifle Club and of his homeroom basketball team. He worked ardently on the Publicity Committee for the Senior Play. His strange hobby is studying military weapons. Johnny plans to attend Officers Candidate School and become a leader of tomorrow's troops.

MARY ANN VENTURA

Well recognized for her cheerful disposition and her winning smile, "Sandy" is a favorite among her classmates. Wherever there is fun or excitement, she is always in the midst of the crowd. Besides her participation in field hockey and basketball, she has been an active member of the Inter Nos and the Shorthand Clubs. Her willingness to cooperate was shown by the capable manner in which she worked on the Make-Up Committee for the Senior Play. Because of her dependability and diligence she has a promising future in the secretarial field.

FLORENCE LILLIAN VIOLA

"The lass with the delicate air" is a fine description of Flo. She came to us in her junior year from Malden High School, and was soon one of us. As a senior, she has been a member of the Usher and Candy Committee for the Senior Play. Pretty petite Flo enjoys dancing, swimming, and roller skating. Her ambition is to be a dental hygienist or a nurse.

BARBARA ANN WALSH

Whoops! Who was that dashing down the corridor? It must have been Barb Walsh. Now we can't say she is one of the quiet, reserved members of our class—no, siree! She is far from it—always bursting with enthusiasm and bubbling over with good humor, she has gained the friendship of everyone. She let some of her spare energy escape by playing basketball and softball, by riding horseback and swimming. She gave a great deal of time and added a bit of the spirit that only she has to the Senior Play Decorating Committee and the Class Prophecy Committee. She says she is undecided about her future work, but she has hinted that we shouldn't be too surprised to see her in the Women's Army Air Force.

JACQUELYN MARY WALSH

When you see a pair of sparkling blue eyes coming down the corridor, you can be sure it's Jacquelyn. During her four years at Wakefield High, she has been very active in school affairs, among which are the following: Glee Club, Motto Committee, Shorthand Club, Student Council, Senior Play Executive Committee, and Senior Play Usher. Her love for dancing is proved by her attendance at Canteens and other school parties. She also likes to draw and is one of Miss Hirst's best artists. Jackie's plans for the future are so many, that we can predict one thing only: a career in art.

JOSEPH PATRICK WALSH, JR.

Smiling, always smiling. That's Joe. Whenever Joe meets someone, he always has a cheery greeting for him. Although he has not participated in competitive sports, he is a good all-round athlete. He has been a staunch supporter of all school activities. As a member of the Class Will Committee, he supplied witty items. The United States Marines will have a very industrial recruit when Joe enlists.

MARGARET FRANCES WALSH

A rather sedate girl is Peggy. Still she has found time for extra-curricular activities. During her four years in Wakefield High she has worked for the Glee Club, the Bowling Club, the Sports Club in addition to serving on the Publicity Committee for the Senior Play. Her favorite pastime is dancing. At the present time Peggy has not yet decided upon her future plans. Our best wishes go with her in whatever choice she makes.

ROBERT JOHN WARCHOL

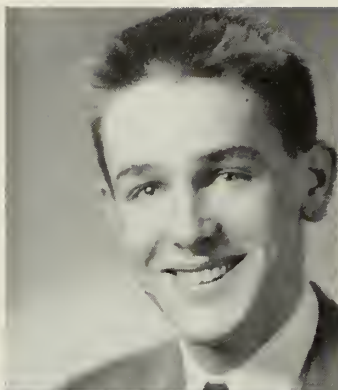

Brilliant and witty, Bob rates high in the esteem of his classmates. A hard worker and a determined student, Bob can always be depended upon to do his job well. Among his offices have been Junior Prom Executive Committee member, Senior Play Executive Committee member, Co-Chairman of the Senior Play Publicity Committee, and Co-Secretary of the Classbook Business Staff. It was largely because of his capable and conscientious leadership that the Senior Play Publicity Committee was overwhelmingly successful. His hobbies of drawing and writing humorous stories and poems show his great talents as an artist and a wit. His hilarious, impromptu cartoons will long be remembered by his friends. Bentley School of Accounting is gaining an ideal student.

VIRGINIA ANN WENTZEL

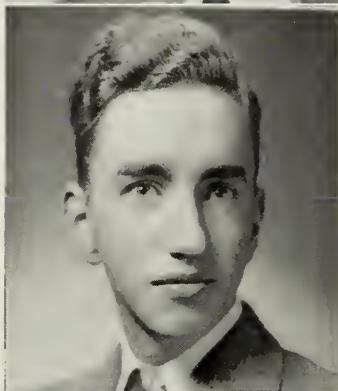

A pleasing personality is one of Virginia's best attributes. She has been a member of the Glee Club, the Inter Nos, and the Spanish Club. A typist for the Classbook and an usher for the Senior Play are numbered among her activities. One of her chief pastimes is taking care of children. Gini is going to business school next year where she will find greater opportunities.

RICHARD EDWARD WHARTON

Dick, who came to us from Newburyport early this year, has proved to be one of the most likable members of our class. His courteous manner, his loyalty, and his love of fun are much admired. He is always carefree and ready for excitement. In Newburyport he was a homeroom representative, a member of the Glee Club and of the Stage Crew. He continued with the Glee Club at Wakefield and also joined the Ski Club, since he greatly enjoys the sport. His jokes have enlightened many a lunchroom period. His present ambition is to learn to be a chef, and then to open his own restaurant.

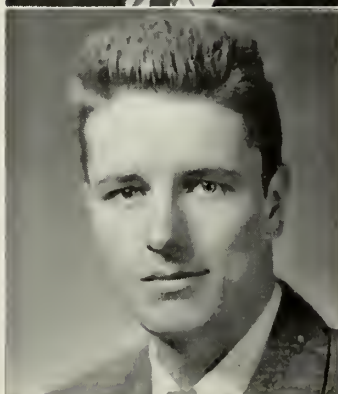

ALBERT CHARLES WHITE

Al lives in Lynnfield Center but doesn't find it the least bit hard to attend all the hockey games, as he is one of our most avid fans. He is also very interested in politics and sports. Al was a member of the Glee Club his freshman year, an alternate of the Yearbook staff, and an assistant on the Senior Play publicity committee, for which he did wonders soliciting advertisements in Lynnfield. Al plans to attend college, and we know his winning personality and friendly ways will make him desirable in any college.

RICHARD EDWARD WHITE

Always ready for anything—that describes Dick, as he is known to his many friends. One of the most cheerful, happy-go-lucky boys in our class, he has been a member of the hockey team for two years and an able drummer in our band during the same period. Dick also served on the Senior Class Photography Committee, the Senior Class Prophecy Committee, and the transportation committee for the Senior Play. Dick intends to further his schooling at prep school or to join the United States Marine Corps. No matter where he may be, we know that Dick will always be a credit to his school.

WARREN WHITING

Here we have Pete Whiting, whose exceptional hockey and baseball playing have put his name in the W. H. S. Hall of Fame. He has played baseball and hockey three years for his Alma Mater and has been baseball captain for two years; hockey for one. He also has been a homeroom president for three years. Besides these activities, Pete has been a member of the Glee Club. He would like to continue his education, but if he does not, the Army is beckoning him. We shall hear of Pete later through some achievement in his chosen field.

ROGER LOUIS WILLIAMS

Roger "Wings" Williams is that boy with the ever ready smile. Roger was a member of the track team his freshman year; all four of his years in high school he was a member of the band; and his second, third and fourth years, a member of the Rifle Club. Roger is mechanically inclined and plans to go on in Mechanical Engineering. His friends enjoy his explosive personality, his continual joviality and his carefree ways.

JOAN WOODWARD

Sparkling eyes and a vivid smile plus winsome manners are but a few of the many qualities that are found in Joan. Her friendliness, sincerity, and her sunny disposition have put Joan high in the esteem of her friends. As a conscientious worker, Joan is sure to be happy in the business world.

JAYNE YEUELL

"Quits," as she is known to her friends, is always the center of attraction. Fun-loving and jovial, Jayne is liked by everyone. She is a great sports fan and has participated in many games including basketball and field hockey. She displayed wonderful cooperation on the Senior Play Usher and Candy Committee, and as an understudy for our play. Jayne also belongs to the Shorthand Club, the Good Grooming Club, and the Chorus. Her favorite pastime is swimming. She plans a business career in order to serve as a community leader.

PHYLLIS ELAINE ZELCK

This attractive miss has such a contagious smile that it makes even the gloomiest drudge give out with a big grin. In her freshman and sophomore years she took part in basketball, field hockey, bowling, and Inter Nos. In her Senior year she was a prominent member of the Lookout Staff and Usher Committee of the Senior Play. This slick chick, whose trim appearance makes it clear that she has belonged to the Good Grooming Group, likes sewing, cooking, and dancing. Phyllis plans to enter her father's business and direct the mail advertising. We predict a booming business with Phyllis as manager.

GLORIA LITA ZWICKER

Pretty, dark haired Glo is one of our most popular Seniors. She will always be remembered as one of our sweetest majorettes. Glo has shown her willingness to help by her never-ending cooperation on the Sophomore Hop Committee, Majorette Dance Committee, and the Usher Committee for the Senior Play, "The Ghost Train." Gloria plans to attend Burdett College in preparation for a position as a private secretary. With her charm and graciousness she has a happy future ahead.

ROBERT ENOCH BUCKLEY

Although "Buck" has not been prominent in any of the activities in Wakefield High School, there are few who do not know him. He is very much interested in photography, and in electricity, and in these fields he excels. Hunting and fishing on Cape Cod are his favorite pastimes. Somewhat reserved, he becomes the most amiable of friends as acquaintanceship progresses.

EDWARD GREELEY CLEARY

Have you seen this fellow with the impish grin and the ability to make friends? Apparently he hasn't a care in the world. He came to Wakefield High from Lynnfield Center and has since become a favorite with everyone. His mischievous spirit has made many a class a lively one. We know that his talent will make him a success in the field of art.

CHARLES FRANCIS DONALDSON

Charlie, that mischievous fellow from Greenwood, is known to practically everyone. During his four years in Wakefield High, he has proved the theory that everybody likes fun. Yes, indeed, there is always merriment when Charlie is around. His energetic ability is shown by his interest for all sports. In his freshman year, he proved to be a capable home-room manager. Also, he has served on the Motto Committee and the Class Dinner Committee. Charlie plans to be a mechanic in the Army Air Force, and afterwards, to start a garage.

JULIO FREDERICK ENCARNACAO, JR

Julio has been one of our outstanding football players for the past few years. It has been his fighting spirit and never-give-up attitude that have aided in making greater Wakefield football teams. Besides playing football for four years, Julio has been an enthusiastic homeroom basketball player since his freshman year. His hobbies are collecting stamps, driving cars and trucks, skiing, and taking apart different type motors. We join in wishing Julio the best of luck in his plans to buy a truck, start a trucking business, and later learn how to fly an airplane.

Class History

JOAN: Gee, I never thought I'd find myself out here, so many miles from Wakefield!

BEVERLY: Yes, these prospecting camps are mighty lonesome; but it'll be worth it if we strike a fortune.

JOAN: The men have been out digging all day; I sure hope they come back with something besides a lame back!

BEVERLY: Well, it's most time for them. We'd better hurry along with the supper.

(Whistle heard—Clementine)

JOAN: Oh, here they are now. They sound happy so they must have found something.

(Boys enter, singing)

JOHN: Hello, gals. Is the grub ready? These little boys is MIGHTY hungry!

JOAN: Yes—but first we want to know what you got today.

DICK: Well, pardners, we didn't find any treasure but we did find this! (Holds up Journal)

BEVERLY: Well, what is it—someone's old love letters?

JOAN: (taking it) Let's look at it—Oaah—say—it's got Eddie Cook, our class secretary's, name in it! How could it have got way out here???

JOHN: Well, he must have been prospecting around these parts, and lost it.

DICK: We found it buried under some leaves and dirt. Well, Joan, what does the old boy say in it?

JOAN: (looking through it) Well—Oh, gee (excitedly) Sa-a-y! It's a diary of our school days at old W. H. S. He must have been carrying it around all this time. . . Listen—I'll read a few pages:

(Reads:) In September of 1945 three hundred eighteen members of the Freshmen Class entered the portals of Wakefield High School, and a new milestone of life. As all previous freshmen, we soon became a part of and contributed in no small way to the confusion of high school life.

DICK: Remember how the seniors made fun of us and kidded about our size?

JOHN: Well, we weren't ALL small!

JOAN: (reading on) Rather bewildered by the maze of rooms, innumerable rules, the system of bells, and corridor jams, our class embarked upon its journey of higher education. After a few weeks we became accustomed to the routine of high school life, and tried hard to master our difficult programs. Some were too timid to join any kind of social life; others participated in the Orchestra, Inter Nos Club, and the Glee Club.

In November of 1945 Wakefield defeated their "old rival," Melrose, 7-6

There were gay celebrations that night, with 800 in attendance at Canteen.

BEVERLY: Hey, I remember that night. Everyone was certainly excited!

JOHN: Gee, no wonder—It had been 23 years since we had defeated them!

JOAN: (reading) In the spring of 1946 we were proud of our school's baseball team. We were Middlesex Champions.

BEVERLY: What a season that was! A crowd of us went into Fenway Park and had loads of fun cheering the boys on.

DICK: Did you see Joe Schwarz double off the left-field wall? What a hit! I got so excited I dropped my hot dog into a lady's corsage of roses!

JOAN: (reading) Although not many of us were acquainted with Miss Gilmore, we were sorry to hear of her retirement as Dean. Miss Elizabeth Upham took over her many responsibilities.

All too soon we found ourselves at the close of our freshman year, and looking ahead to being upper classmen. . . . Here, John, you read for a while.

JOHN: Well, this tells about our sophomore year. (Reading) On September 6, 1946, after ten weeks of vacation, we returned to school eager to use our titles as "sophomores," and with a friendly contempt for freshmen.

DICK: Yes—and with an exceptional collection of sunburns, tans, and freckles. The possession of the latter was most disturbing to the fairer sex of the other classes.

JOHN: (reading) The Inter Nos Club started the tradition of “Freshman Day.” All the freshmen girls had to wear their hair in pigtails and carry their books in baskets or pails.

BEVERLY: Yes, I’ll never forget that day. Their worst punishment was that the girls couldn’t speak to the boys all day.

JOHN: (reading) Class Election was held on October 15, and Roy Lefavour was elected President. He was aided in his post by Jean Connolly as Vice-President; Betty Hoepfner as Secretary; and Alice Redfearn as Treasurer. Also, about this time, Mr. R. Edgar Fisher was made Assistant Superintendent of Schools because of the illness of Mr. Atwell. . . . On November 4, Melrose beat Wakefield, 13-0.

DICK: Yes, but don’t forget, in spite of that defeat, Wakefield played “Heads up” ball all year, and displayed a fine brand of football.

JOHN: (reading) On February 12, the whole school was saddened by the resignation of our principal, Mr. Peterson. On February 27, Mr. Roland Kinder was appointed principal.

JOAN: Yes, when Mr. Kinder was appointed to follow Mr. Peterson’s footsteps, our spirits lifted as we knew that he was entirely capable of heading this group of future prospectors.

JOHN: (reading) The School Committee was busy this year. They also appointed Mr. James Walsh as head coach of baseball and football; and Mr. Lucian Colucci as head coach of basketball.

DICK: And Pop Fulton was made submaster for the coming year.

BEVERLY: Yes, we couldn’t have a more understanding man to tell our excuses to, could we?

DICK: Oh, going back to basketball—Roy Lefavour gained distinction again by piling up the greatest number of points for our team.

JOHN: (reading) Mr. Atwell, who had been our Superintendent of Schools for years, resigned on April 18, because of illness. . . . On May 18, the Sophomore Hop, our first dance, was a huge success.

JOAN: Remember all the colorful banners, stop signs, and posters. They gave it a true collegiate effect.

JOHN: (reading) At last . . . the day we had anticipated all year long had arrived, and school was over for the summer. . . . Thus ended our Sophomore year. Bev, why don’t you read the next one.

BEVERLY: O. K., pardner. (reading) In September, 1947, we entered our Junior year, feeling mighty proud of ourselves. At last we were upper classmen. We took a more prominent part in high school activities; and athletes from our class began to be outstanding. Roy Lefavour won the first Varsity Club “player of the week” award, and Frank Fotino took the second one. In October, we chose the following officers: President, Roy Lefavour; Vice-President, Jean Connolly; Secretary, Betty Hoepfner; and Treasurer, Alice Redfearn.

JOAN: I remember that we chose blue and gold for our colors—and—

DICK: Our motto was—OUR AIM, SUCCESS; OUR HOPE, TO WIN!

BEVERLY: On October 11, everybody turned out for the annual Cheerleaders’ dance and had a grand time hopping around. In November, for the second time while we were in high school, we had the thrill of beating our old-time rival, Melrose, 6-0.

JOHN: Boy, that was a shut-out, too!

BEVERLY: (reading) On November 22, our class had their Junior Prom. We called it “The Stardust Prom” and decorated the gym with stars and signs of the Zodiac.

JOAN: Gee, I’ll never forget that dance. It was really dreamy.

DICK: Yes, the gym looked wonderful, didn’t it!

BEVERLY: (reading) In December, the football team elected Mike Roberto and Roy Lefavour co-captains for the following season.

JOHN: Naturally—"Mr. Short" and "Mr. Long" were both outstanding players.

BEVERLY: On February 10, the Inter Nos Club held an enjoyable Valentine Tea Dance. And the hockey team, after bringing their season to a close with a scoreless tie with Dedham, chose Duna Hicks and Nino Bonomo as their co-captains. Roy Lefavour and sophomore Gerry Glynn were elected to lead the basketball team. The baseball team also had a successful season.

JOAN: Didn't they come in pretty close to the top of the league?

JOHN: I guess they did! They finished in second place!

BEVERLY: (reading) The team chose Pete Whiting and Dave Hallahan co-captains for the next year. In June, the Inter Nos Officers were chosen for the following year: Alice Redfearn, President; Irene Fazio, Vice-President; Dorothy Casey, Corresponding Secretary; Betty Hoepfner and Arlene Lamprey, senior directors. The Lookout Staff elected a trio of editors for the next year: Patti Morico, Claire Kolbe, and Phyllis D'Entremont. . . . A peppy group of cheerleaders were elected for the following year headed by Irene Fazio. All too soon graduation came, and we realized that we should soon miss the class which we had followed for three years. Now WE should be the leaders; and we left school for vacation a little awed by our potential importance. . . . Well, Dick, it's up to you to carry on from here.

DICK: (reading) On September 7, 1948 we entered Wakefield High to begin our last year of public school education. Four additions had been made to our staff: Mr. Hennessey, Miss Callan, Mr. Sheehan, and Mr. Barry.

JOAN: Remember how we looked down on the other classmen?

BEVERLY: Yes, the freshmen seemed smaller than ever.

JOHN: That new paint job on the walls brightened our lives, but we missed drawing finger pictures above the high-water line.

DICK: (reading) We re-elected Roy Lefavour as Class President; and Jean Connolly as Vice President; and elected Alice Redfearn, Treasurer; and Edward Cook, Secretary. In October we dropped a close 7-6 football decision to our rival, Melrose. The newly-organized Sports Club, under the able supervision of Supt. Bair and Mr. Crompton, held a Hobo Party on October 30, with almost 700 attending. The following month, a large crowd of Seniors and students enjoyed the annual Cheerleaders' Dance. On November 23, not to be outdone by the Cheerleaders, the Baton Twirlers also held a dance which everyone enjoyed. On December 3 and 4 everyone enjoyed our stage production of the GHOST TRAIN. Much praise was given to the players: the Coach, Mr. Staunton; and the advisor, Miss Abbott.

BEVERLY: I thought I'd die laughing at David Gibbons' performance.

JOHN: The rest of the cast certainly showed outstanding ability, too.

JOAN: Boy, did I jump when the light appeared in the window!

DICK: (reading) Another large group attended the gala Christmas Party sponsored by the Sports Club for the Football team. Then the year 1949 was welcomed by the Hi-Y New Year's Eve Party in the high school gym.

On January 14, the Classbook Staff was elected and quickly went to work. On January 15 the Inter Nos Square Dance was enjoyed by all who attended. And on February 5 the best talent of our school gathered to entertain parents, friends, and fellow students at a Home Talent Night.

On Feb. 18 the Classbook went to press after six weeks of arduous work by the Editorial and Business Staffs.

On May 14 we held our Senior Prom and last formal get-together. And May 31, we found Class Day had arrived before we realized it. And the climax, Commencement Day on June 3, we greeted with mingled feelings of joy and regret. With caps, gowns, diplomas, and a new feeling of freedom and anticipation, it was a day long to remember.

DICK: (sighing and closing book) Well, that's that. Let's eat!

BEVERLY: (dreamily) It all seems so far away now—on with the food.

Will of Class of 1949

TO WHOMEVER IT MAY CONCERN:

We, the 49'ers, of Wakefield High School, town of Wakefield, County of Middlesex, being in full and complete possession of our faculties of mind and body, do hereby declare and proclaim this document to be our last will and testament and do hereby devise, bequeath, and bestow our gifts and possessions in the following manner:

FIRST: The Class Gift. A sack of gold for a class gift to be purchased under the direction of Chief Prospector Kinder and the class gift committee, comprising prospectors Paul Cole, George Egan, Lena Iosua, David Hallahan, Elsie Johnson, and Janet Hubbard.

SECOND: To the Faculty of Wakefield High School, our sincere and deepest appreciation for guiding us through the past years.

To Mr. Cassano, a list of names of boys who loiter on the second floor.

To Mr. Fulton, a package of "delayed" Lynnfield bus slips.

To Miss Caswell, a new set of encyclopedias.

To Mr. Barry, a complete set of new American History texts.

To Miss Hiatt, detectives to help find the missing type books.

To Mr. Kinder, a set of chains to keep the Seniors in school.

To Miss Height, a package of hour slips.

THIRD: To the Junior Class, we leave all our unprepared homework to finish next year.

FOURTH: To the Sophomore Class, some vitamin tablets for their coming Junior year.

FIFTH: To the Freshman Class, all the opportunities we passed both regular and irregular.

SIXTH: Individually, we bequeath the following:

"Pete" Shumway's skiing abilities to Nancy.

Jean Connolly's personality to "Ginny" Annichiarico.

"Betty" Howard's way with boys to Judy Mathias.

Enid Kaler's dimples to "Ginny" Ricciardelli.

"Renee" Fazio's clothes to "Jackie" Doherty.

Shirley Edward's walk to "Andy" Pratt.

"Vangie" McCabe's wit to Marion Hickey.

Gordon Gate's height to Phyllis Kent.

Paul Cole's shyness with girls to "Richie" Angelini.

Doris Dean's singing to Lessie Spinks.

Claire Surette's giggle to Nancy Kitchenman.

John Day's gift of gab to "Andy" Anderson.

Roy Lefavour's basketball skill to "Moose" Moran.

"Billy" Halloran's hockey skill to his brother "Don."

John Morrison's tardiness to Peggy McCabe.

SEVENTH: To our fellow classmates the Senior Class wills:

Roy Serrentino—a flash bow tie.

"Bud" Johnson—luck in love with Jean Hird.

Agnes Robbins—a pair of stilts.

Shirley Edwards—a contract with M. G. M.

"Ronnie" Hawks—a 1949 Buick.

Enid Kaler—a loud speaker.

Larry Ross—a modernized grocery store in the heart of Lynnfield.

"Tillie" Swett—a round trip ticket to Florida.

Billy Graff and Francis Bowman—a scholarship to some college.
Lorraine Millett—free access to a wardrobe company.
Richard Hammer—Mary Milotte.

Robert Hancock—a brakeman’s job on the Bangor and Aroostook Railroad.
Catherine LeBlanc—a date with Russell Hacker to play duets.
Patti Morico—a car for Bill.
Beverly Packard—a job as sneeze specialist on a radio show advertising cold pills.
William Myers—a water-tight argument that will satisfy Mr. Fulton.

LASTLY: We hereby appoint Mr. Kinder, Executor of this, our last Will and Testament, which has been drawn up by every prospector as we travel across the country in the covered wagons, and we hereby revoke all former wills made by us.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto subscribed our names in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-nine.

(Signed) Phyllis Allen
Rita Maher
John Goodwin
William Cox

Faculty Sponsor, Miss Conley

We whose names are hereto subscribed certify that on the sixth of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine, 49’ers, the testators, subscribed their names to the testament in our presence and in the presence of each of us at the same time, and in our presence and hearing declared the same to be their last Will and Testament, and requested us, and each of us, to sign our names thereto as witnesses to the executive thereof, which we hereby do in the presence of the testors and of each another on the said date, and right opposite our names our respective places of residence.

Class Prophecy

TIME: Winter, 1959

PLACE: An Old Cabin

At The Head Of Lake Quannapowitt

Four old sourdoughs are sitting around a stove. "One Eye" Meuse and "Shorty" Roberts are playing their annual winter-long game of checkers and "Black Dick" White and "Frenchy" Raymond are warming their feet by the stove smoking their old corncobs. There is a knock at the door and "Black Dick" and "Frenchy" both fall out of their chairs as a beautiful girl enters. She announces herself as Lorraine Millett, ace news-woman for the Associated Press. She explains that she is inquiring the whereabouts of the "Forty-Niners" so that she can write a story about them. The four bewhiskered old gentlemen proceed to chip in what they know about the members of the illustrious class of '49, as Miss Millett jots down notes.

Dick Bennett is now the manager of the First National Store in Wakefield. He sells everything from a cueball to a new Cadillac.

Ted Burns is a Colonel in the Marines, and has just written a book about Marine Life entitled, "We Are Not Swabbies."

Eddie Cook, top publicity man for M. G. M., is vacationing on his yacht in the Caribbean with Lana Turner. Reports say they were married in Haiti by an old Voodoo Priest.

Tom Tupper is now the manager of the "Ritz-Carlton." He is packing in the business with his new multi-screen technicolor television set.

Charlie Donaldson is married to Oleitta and is running the Trading Post for Oleitta's grandfather's Indian Tribe, the Sioux City Sioux.

Ruth Filoramo is now Wally Fitt's personal secretary for the Fitt Trucking Company. Their total assets are one typewriter, one pick-up truck, and no business.

"Duna" Hicks has again been chosen All-Star Defenseman in the N. H. L. His style of play has earned him the nick-name of "Slasher."

Frank Luciano has retained the World Pool Championship for the fifth straight year. He is a professor of kinetic energy at McConville's College of Cuestick Knowledge.

Jack Morris was proclaimed top money winner in the professional golf circuit this year.

Grace Pastorello is personnel manager for the Richard Hale Vitamin Research Laboratories.

Pete Shumway is slated to coach the Olympic Ski Team next year. He was unable to compete in the National Championships this year as the result of a broken leg sustained while skiing in his front yard.

"Bobby" St. Pierre is the top dress designer in the U. S. A. She has gone to Paris to get some new inspirations . . . or maybe a new husband.

John Ventura is the new Commander of the 182nd Infantry Regiment of the National Guard. He has made some improvements. After every five minutes of drill, there is a ten minute break for a cigarette.

Dick White is in Hollywood with his band making a new musical comedy called "Who Put the Molasses in Elden's Saxophone."

Barbara Roach, who is now a Conover Model, has just returned from Hollywood where she is reported to have signed a contract to star in a new technicolor extravaganza.

Charlie DeWolf was recently chosen as one of the ten best-dressed men in the country. He owns the New York nite club, "The Harem."

Fred Sias is still collecting dividends from the brainstorm that he had a few years back. He installed parking meters at the head of the lake.

Dick Wharton isn't doing so well in his restaurant since he hired Claire Kierstead as receptionist. If he fires her, the new Public Health Nurse, Catherine LeBlanc, will close him down.

George Perry and Herb Furness are doing a flourishing business as new co-owners and chief musicians at the "Savoy Club" in Boston. Their featured singer is none other than Barbara Malonson.

Ronnie Hawkes is still collecting royalties on his book entitled "The Science of Effective Grocery Displays."

Larry Ross has finally invested his money in something other than bowling. He is the president of the "Lynnfield Lamp Lighters Electric Co." His secretary is none other than our own Mary DiTonno.

Roy Lefavour, our class president, is the Headmaster of the University of Wakefield. He loved school so much that he just had to become a teacher.

The Boston Bruins have just won the Stanley Cup for the fourth consecutive season under the capable coaching of former W. H. S. star Phil Sousa.

Art Loubris has opened a gas station in the north woods of Maine. He says that his success depends upon how well his new type of gas will sell. It is $\frac{3}{4}$ gas and $\frac{3}{4}$ water, which makes it very economical.

Julio Encarnacao has just completed his third year of Pro Football for the Green Bay Packers, and Cbet Confalone is a dangerous contender for the middleweight championship of the world. If he takes the title, he is going to start boxing men instead of women.

That "Lynnfield Wolf," Tommy Kenney, has finally slowed down—at least a little. He has become a successful lawyer. Tom's competitor, John Callan, has just hired another new secretary, Margaret Fuller.

Margaret Walsb, noted singer, is appearing nightly at the "Skyline Roof," which has recently been opened by multi-millionaire Lenny Meuse.

Vangie McCabe, that notorious man-hater, is now a squadron commander in the W.A.F.'s.

Leslie Todd's business, the Todd Refrigerator Service, has increased so much recently that he has had to have a personal secretary. It's Jean Hird. No wonder he dislikes dictating machines.

Janet Foster didn't like her name so she changed it to Mrs. Harry Johnson. They live in the farming country—Lynnfield. Their neighbor, Bud Johnson, was down to the garage recently having his Model A repaired. He says he uses it a lot on his farm. O boy, what a farmer!!

Frank Bowman is now a big time jerk—soda that is, and he has his own store too.

Did you know that Alfred Confalone inherited the Crystal Crispette Pop Corn Shop? He is now planning a nation-wide chain of popped corn stores.

Roberta Scribner has a fine position illustrating for Walt Disney Productions. The cover on the latest issue of Donald Duck Comics was done by her.

Dorothy Casey likes her new job . . . "housewife." She has moved south—to Melrose.

Janice Garrett always had a desire to travel, and she has really started. She left last week On a Slow Boat To China.

Bob Baker is head coach at Yale now. He was scrub coach for quite a while. Can't keep a good man down, Bob.

Joe DeRoche has found that all the hacking around at Bear Hill has paid off. He has just won the National Amateur Golf Championship.

Want to know something?? Several of our best known "lover boys" are living at the Lonely Hearts Club; among them are George Egan, John Gibbons, and Bob Parva. And who do you think is president of the club? None other than Joe Colwell!

Hollywood has claimed several of our class beauties. Renee Faio, Mileen McGee, Lee Smart and Charlotte Findlay are known as the Four of Diamonds and have appeared in several musicals.

John Hacker, genial proprietor of "John's Grill" on Route #1, is packing them in every night since Skippy Surette opened an open air theater across the street.

That sweet voice you get when you call for your reservation at American Airlines is our own Mary Shaw. Also working for American Airlines is beautiful Connie Armstrong. She is a stewardess.

Pete Whiting has made a name for himself since he joined the Boston Red Sox. His pitching has kept the Sox on top all season.

Enid Kaler has finally become a very famous columnist. Her daily articles appear in the Lookout every month.

Claire Sheldon has become an art teacher. She specializes in drawing cylinders and boxes.

Bruce Chandler, a prominent lawyer of Boston, has married one of his wealthy lady clients and he doesn't have to work any more.

Janet Hubbard, Wakefield's new math teacher, has found a new way of teaching accounting. She specializes in no homework.

Phyllis Allen, who became a famous court stenographer, has married one of the defendants. She says he is all of her old boy friends put together.

Leo Milotte has found a new way of selling goods. He lets the customer try on something which is about five sizes too small; and when the customer can't get it off she has to buy it.

Tilly Sweett has started the new act on water. She and her companion, Arlene Lamprey, do flips on a surf board. Arlene, who wanted to be an airline reservationist, says that this is the highest she ever gets off the ground.

Richard Hamner has designed a new building. The house looks like a balloon with a hole in the middle. When he goes out and slams the door, the house collapses.

Joyce Houlder, who wanted to be a legal secretary, finally has become her boss's wife.

Lillian Blatz has started the new "Pick-Them-Up-Club." It consists of only the best skaters; they are Dot Camuso and Lorraine DeVau, and Rita Dumont accompanies them on the piano.

Larry DeAngelis has opened another in his chain of Spaghetti Houses. Mike Roberto is his chief cook. Maybe that accounts for the full house at the City Hospital next door.

That smiling Irishman, Dave Hallaban, has been taken into his father's trucking business. He will make the name "Hallahan's Express" famous from coast to coast.

Remember how the kids used to flock to "Tedd's Inn?" The place is now called "Tedd's Hall," owned and operated by Ted (Francois) Raymond. There's no dining and no dancing, only pool and billiards.

Dottie Nutile decided not to be a "maiden lady" after all! She and her husband are soooooo happy on their "mink" ranch in southern Arizona.

LADIES HERO

What Is It?

Remember muscle-man Charlie Stephens? He has just been proclaimed the world's greatest weight lifter.

Bob McWhinnie owns a store, and it's the only one in town which sells hair curling solutions exclusively.

Jimmy Scott is training lady wrestlers now. He has Jobnny LeBlanc working as his bodyguard in case one of the women gets too rough.

Joe Walsb and Midge Landry are honeymooning in Bermuda. Joe wanted to join the Marines, but he thinks he is going to like wedded bliss better.

If you need any second hand parts for your car, take a ride down to "Sully" Sullivan's "Antique Yard." Paul Cole works down there, and in his spare time he plays his sax. Sully wonders why Paul doesn't get any work done.

Because of her height, Jackie Cavanagh has become a model for the "Shapely Model Agencies."

Cecil Roberts is one of the famous Rangers in the Grand Canyon National Park. He lives all alone and has only the birds and the bears to listen to his jokes.

Lorraine Muse makes personal appearances at the schools demonstrating "Comptometer machines."

Bob Warchol has become a nationally known Certified Public Accountant. He has made so much money that now he devotes all his time to checking his own accounts.

Roger Williams, who is interested in refrigeration, locked himself inside his own refrigerator recently while attempting to fix it.

Shirley May Fritz has started a new style in sweaters. She makes them long enough to protect the feet.

Agnes Robbins now lives on a ranch in Texas where she raises horses. She will soon ride her own horse in the Derby.

Bob Buckley is still hopefully fishing down on Cape Cod. His picture was in the "Sunday Herald" showing him holding his prize-winning three pound Cusk.

Did you see champ Norm Finney after he capsized in last week's squall? His automatic capsize whistle didn't work.

Have you heard Spike Jones' new record featuring Jimmie Rizza at the piano?

The Navy has a new atomic weapon, but no one except designer Bill Larkin knows how it works—and he is not quite sure.

Earl Christopher isn't making any money on his candy bar invention. It is a nine inch bar for a nickel. If you have a spare five cent piece, why not buy a "Dentist's Delight" caramel bar and help Earl?

John Herliby has taken Bob Hope's place as the nation's number one comedian. His associate, Dick Borden, writes the hilarious scripts which have made John such a public favorite.

Bill Cox is now operating a guide service for hunting parties. His motto is "Don't get lost alone; get lost with Cox."

Criminal lawyers John Goodwin and William Miller have put their rates up to 30 per cent of the loot.

Howie Hodsdon has invented a new "dent proof" fender. He hasn't been doing too badly since he put them on his car; however, if there is anyone who will crush one of these "dent proof" fenders, it will be Howie.

Bill Schacht, school carpenter, has been asked to repair the bowling alleys after the girls get through on Tuesday afternoons.

George Kulacz is designing a new rocket brake for automobiles. This should be a help to "cowboy" John Goddard who is getting tired of buying new grills.

Mr. Fulton has hired his own private secretary, Mary Ventura, to make out his P. M. slips.

John Adams has taken Mr. Gallop's place as chemistry teacher at W. H. S. Jack always was a good mixer.

Marjorie Flewelling married a minister from Kansas and went out there to live. To her surprise, she found a classmate, Margaret MacQuarrie, had opened a new factory in the same town. Her specialty is Toastie Oatsie Cereals. To help her advertise her product, Margaret has Evvie Birch, the only roller skater to roll across the country without stopping. Evvie says the cereal did it! Another booster for the cereal is Bernice Butt who says, "Toastie Oatsies are responsible for my petal-smooth complexion."

Jean Macdonald is in Arizona making necklaces of snake rattles. She does a clanging business.

Elaine Stanley has a business right here in Wakefield. She's a taxidermist. She stuffs most of the animals right in her own office, the old police station.

Charlotte Nelson has formed a new band which is similar to Spike Jones' Orchestra. There is real talent in it with Phyllis D'Entremont doing the vocals and Barbara DeRocher writing all the arrangements.

Charlotte Doucette sells toothpaste now. With such a pretty smile she is sure to be successful.

Did you know that Claire Griffin is now Wakefield's first policewoman? Barbara Field is taking up the same work but has not got out on a beat yet. She is teaching the cops how to twirl their billy clubs.

A brightly lighted sign on Broadway reads "Shirley Edwards and David Gibbons" in the new play—"Love's Dream." It is rumored that David drew all the posters for the play.

Another successful actress from the Class of '49 is Betty Howard. She is being mentioned for the Academy Award for her performance in "Alone with 1,000 Men."

Fern Layton is a dentist, and what customers she gets with her offices right next door to the Fargo Building in South Boston! Her attractive assistant is Norma S. Anderson.

Janet King's art studio in Boston is a busy place with many celebrities coming in to have their portraits done.

Adeline Ponte is the director of the Boston Branch of The Nation-Wide Baby Sitters Association. Albert White is the secretary of this thriving firm.

We hear now that Madame Ooo-La-La (alias Amelia Capone), the famous editor of "Women's Home Journal," has just returned from Paris with her two co-editors, Barbara Perkins and Barbara Mackenzie.

Gordon Gates, our famous strong-armed football player, is now down to something more gentle. Gordon now gives lessons in "Tripping the Light Fantastic."

Barbara McCaig now owns Smith's drug store and sells as her specialty product "Billy's Bones Builder," manufactured and produced by Billy Orne.

Patti Alorico can now be seen on every cover of SEVENTEEN as the "Golden Haired Beauty."

Billy Halloran, one of our fast moving hockey players, is now playing for the Boston Bruins as the "Bruiser Himself."

Claire Kolbe is now getting lots of gossip to put in her column, for she works for the Item Press. Her column runs under the heading of "Let's Chat Awhile."

Janet Morin, the famous hair stylist, is now appearing at the Statler Hotel in Boston. She has for her demonstration of the new sidesweep, Gloria Zwicker, who has traveled with her for many years.

Barbara Walsh, the first woman flyer to cross the Atlantic, has retired in France because she can't make it back.

Barbara Guitadauro and Rita Maher, two very promising girls in high school, have proved themselves, for they now manage the "Squirt Cola Company."

Alice Redjean, executive for the Board of Health, is now giving lectures at all the schools in this area. Her subject is "Keep the Red Corpuscles Away from the White Ones."

Those three outstanding actresses, Lena Iosua, Lena Roberto, and Mary Testa, will appear at the Wakefield Playhouse for one week only in that famous play, "The Handwriting Upon the Wall."

Jackie Walsh now models her beautiful big blue eyes for Gloria Sampson's famous eye-wash product "Make Um Bigger and Brighter."

Claire Surette, that Queen of Comedy, is now appearing in person at the RKO in Boston. She is known 'round the world for her famous saying, "Ah! There's Good Jokes Tonight!"

Virginia Melanson and Joan Somers are the two world champion typists. They are the only ones who can type with only their thumbs.

Barbara Hartford is now attending all the famous jury trials. She is court reporter at the Boston Court House.

Jeanne Andrews, with her arms full of groceries from her daily shopping, is yelling, "Open the Door, Richard!"

Joyce Miller and Joan Woodward have resigned as efficient stenographers for the Christie Company and are planning their double wedding ceremony.

Jeanne Mauriello, famous radio comedian, has gone to Germany to entertain our soldiers over there.

Doris Dean is now recording artist for "The Creamy Dreamy Record Co."

Joan Dycyan is head of the Accounting Department at Wakefield University.

That colossal show "Ice Queen" now has as its skating star, Rosalie Fasciano.

Lillian Heath is posing for that famous Paris artist, Robert Lafleur.

The new football coach at Wakefield High is versatile Frank Fotino.

Marion Mackenzie, dress designer for New Look Studios, has among her lovely models, Joan Gianferri.

After a long day's work as private secretary, Dorothy Perillo can be found spending her leisure time sketching.

Jean Palmerino and Barbara Harris are now efficient stenographers employed by the government.

The big feature at Mechanics Building is William Fuller, now wrestling Larry Lovely.

Elsie Johnson is teaching typing and shorthand at Red River High School.

Marilyn Graves can be found in the little white cottage humming her favorite song, "Bill."

Lorraine Gerry has her hands full now as night supervisor at Malden City Hospital.

Louise Dale is a private secretary for a Wakefield lawyer.

Phyllis Zelck on her exclusive chicken farm has just written, "The Yolk and I."

John Day has taken a 10-day cruise to Bermuda on his newly acquired yacht.

Donald Rogers, now ensign in the United States Navy, has been assigned to the U. S. S. JOANNA SAN.

Most of our advertising jingles are composed by Donald Van Wagner, employed by the "Buy and Try it Company."

Virginia Wentzel still has her patience. She has just opened her Day Nursery in Greenwood.

Virginia Damon has been seen carrying books home from the library on "How to Plan a Wedding."

Mary McCarthy is head typist at Joe's Reducing Salon, owned and operated by Joseph Palumbo.

Bill LaCombe is now employed by ESQUIRE as Staff Artist.

Patricia Ryder has just accepted a position as instructor of gymnastics. She says she is having more fun than the students.

Priscilla Maher has organized a man-hater club and she tells us the club slogan is "Men, Are You Kidding?"

Mildred Mara was recently awarded a prize winning cup for being the one and only girl in Wakefield who ever skipped school and got away with it.

Martha Fox has finally given the boys a break. She says "Hi" to them occasionally.

Norma E. Anderson has entered her famous horse, "Tiptoe," in next year's Steeplechase in England.

Jayne Yeuell has been appointed, by Superintendent of Schools, William Graff, as Woman Truant Officer. She enjoys her work very much.

Barbara Swallow took the Women's Golf Crown from Shirley Urquhart this year. There was quite a dispute over it, but as usual, the best one always wins.

Robert Hancock is on his way to success in making an attempt to get parents to break down and give them a raise in allowances. He has finally convinced them that things are not as they were ten years ago.

Jean McGregor has just finished her book and it is waiting for its first appearance in all the leading book stores. The name of the book is "Never Underestimate the Powers of a Woman."

Jean Connolly has written her own formula for a successful high school career.

Janice Kirk is teaching Algebra at Harvard University and is having a wonderful time with her X's and Y's.

Lorraine Millett, one of our most talented hairdressers, is currently designing the coiffures of many of our famous movie stars. Among them are Zasu Pitts, Cass Daly, and Frankenstein's other wife.

Katherine DeVeau, known for her sense of humor, has finally succeeded in taking over Miss Clifford's Office Practice Class.

Madeline Meuse has landed a very interesting job as secretary in Greenwood's largest manufacturing concern.

Do you want longer hair? Then see Florence Viola. She is well-known in this part of the country for her special formula for growing longer hair.

Marilyn Smallwood is the girl to see if your bones ache. She has guaranteed to give you faster relief in twenty-four hours, with her new formula.

Peggy Curran and Beverly Packard, two of the most efficient women doctors ever to leave Wakefield High, have invented the new stitch for closing an appendix wound. "Knit two, Pearl two, and Slip one."

Roy Serrentino and Edward Cleary have taken positions as the two top janitors of the invisible fifth floor at Wakefield High.

Joseph Loughlin has just been appointed manager of the Boston Red Sox. It is rumored that his salary increase is so great that he has had to hire Gloria Sampson as his personal accountant.

Acknowledgments

EDITORIAL

It is a privilege to express our gratitude to those persons who have aided us in our prospecting days, particularly to the following: Miss Isabel Hirst of the Art Department; Mr. Fred Sias for his cover; our class photographer, Purdy; the BernS Studio for use of football cut; Mr. Edward A. Rich of the Item Press for willing assistance; Mr. James E. Fairweather of the Back Bay Electrotpe and Engraving Company; our able typists and their supervisors, Miss Florence Clifford and Miss Ruth Hiatt; our Business Staff; and Miss Bernice L. Caswell, our general adviser.

Editors: BARBARA DEROCHE, EDWARD COOK

BUSINESS

To Our Advertisers, whose cooperation with us has made possible the publication of this Book, we extend our sincere thanks for their efforts in our behalf.
